CHANGED FOREVER

On the morning of Tuesday, September 11, 2001 an event occurred that changed forever the way Americans perceived the world around them. It was just after second period and there was talk about a plane that had crashed into one of the twin towers of the World Trade Center in New York. In third period classes, televisions were turned on to see live video as reporters and newscasters rushed to the scene to record the shocking event while people evacuated the buildings. To everyone's surprise and dismay, another plane crashed into the second tower causing even more fear and confusion. In less than an hour, the two New York landmarks came crumbling down in a mass of smoke and debris forming a heap of rubble five stories high. As this was happening, two other planes crashed. One hit the Pentagon while the other crashed in the Pennsylvania countryside. Very few events had touched so many Americans before. The event became known as 9-1-1 and students watched helplessly as the story unfolded on the television screens. During the ensuing days, Americans followed the events by tuning in to the extensive news coverage of the tragedy. Some watched wondering if it was their loved ones who would be found dead in the ruins, or if it was in fact their own family member who had been on one of the hijacked planes. It was a day where students and adults alike learned just how vulnerable Americans were. Everyone learned an important lesson in life as well. They learned how valuable and fragile life was, and how important it was to preserve and keep safe.

The years spent in high school were also a period of change. During that time new friends were made, new interests were developed, and world outlooks were altered. The students realized that the protective atmosphere of high school would not extend past graduation. Their world was in a constant state of flux. By the time they graduated they would be changed forever.

CHANGED FOREVER

Being a student was no easy task. Students had to juggle their school work, after school activities, a personal life and sometimes even a job. Students were constantly faced with decisions that had to be made. Sometimes they made decisions and did things that they shouldn't have done and wish that they hadn't done and, most likely, would never do again. Sometimes bad things just happened which made people feel as if they were the only one in the world who's ever had anything bad happen to them. Everyone has felt that way at one time or another but in the end most students looked upon their lives in a positive manner and realized that there were a lot of good things that occurred in everyone's life. Eventually, many of the bad and good things were forgotten and life went on. All these events, however, formed a student's life and meant that everything was changed forever.

COMING HOME FOR THE ACTION

Homecoming week began on Monday, October 8 with Hat day which was followed by Mix-Match day, Twins day and Blue and Gold day on Thursday. There was no school on Friday due to NEOEA day. Returning for the first time in more than twenty years was the Powder puff football game on Wednesday evening. There was a Blue and a Gold team made up of girls from all the classes. On Friday evening there was the annual Homecoming football game which was with the Elyria Pioneers. It was filled with excitement as the stands filled with enthusiastic fans dressed in blue and gold. The cheerleaders were filled with spirit and were ready to help the fans cheer the Panthers on to victory. The EHS marching band halftime show was enhanced by a brief fireworks display to accompany a performance of the 1812 Overture. Before the game began the Homecoming candidates were introduced to the fans and at halftime, the 2001 homecoming court was announced. The football team had a strong first half effort and were able to finish the evening on the winning side of a 23-9 score. The week's activities were concluded with the homecoming dance which was held on Saturday evening.

SUNSET ROMANCE

On Saturday, October 13, 2001, more than 700 students piled into the E-room ballroom for the 2001 Homecoming dance. The dance lasted from 7-11 pm and was sponsored by Student Council. The tickets cost $15 apiece. The theme of the dance was Sunset Romance and the colors were black, red and orange. The ballroom was decorated in these colors and each student had their name written on a paper leaf that was hung on the walls. Couples had both their names written on one leaf. At the dance professional pictures were taken and the students were entertained by a disc jockey. Snacks and punch were served at all who attended the dance. After a couple of hours of dancing the homecoming court was announced. Kim Carotenuto was the sophomore and Betsy Kunsman was the junior attendant. There were ten candidates for queen and four for king. Aric Croone-Cain was the king. Kathleen Oprian, Dominique Drake and Rachel Potocnik were 3rd, 2nd and 1st runner up respectively for queen. Diondra Smith was voted 2001 homecoming queen. The rest of the evening was filled with slow dances, line dances and modern dances. As the students left the dance they were each given a picture stand to take home as a remembrance of the wonderful evening.

CHANGED FOREVER

Once again it was the seniors time to say good bye. They worked hard to be where they were now and now had a whole new life ahead of them. They were now free to pursue a further education or begin a career, but whatever future awaited them, it would be up to them to make it happen. Life as a freshman was very different from that of a senior. The level of maturity greatly changed as students transitioned from their freshman year to their senior year. Through the good times and the bad, the happy times and the sad, they managed to triumph and come out on top. The disaster that occurred on September 11, 2001 was just one terrible example of the surprises and horrors that life could have in store for everyone. The seniors were not what they were before, they were changed forever.

-Sophia Catlett

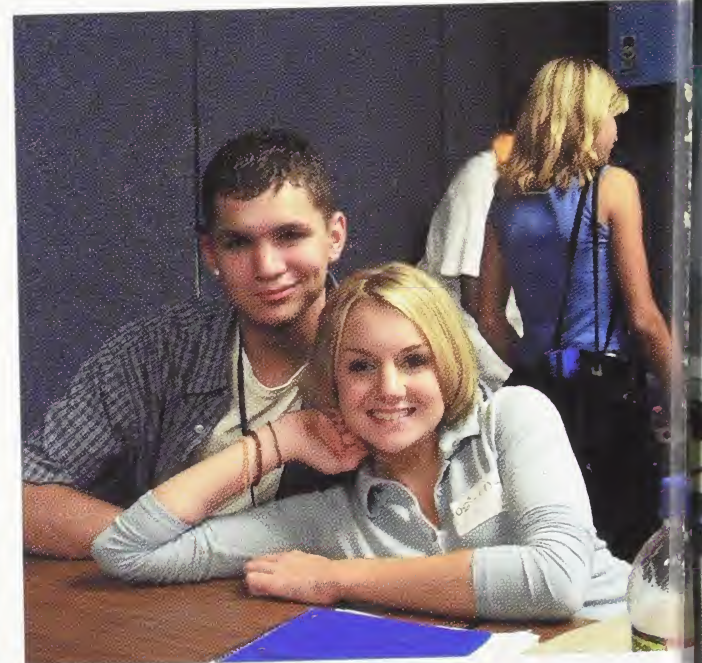

Tara Mc Connell, Crystal Duckworth, Renee Renbarger and Cristina Pacheco are getting ready to enter the next phase of their lives after graduation.

Nicole Brinkley working hard in her chemistry class since she knows the material she learns may be useful in her future.

Carlette Dean and Shana Williams are studying options that they will have as they enter their futures.

Adam Kazen and Allison Deal are ready to enter their futures with a positive attitude.

SENIORS

Laura Osterman, Adria Mc Gill, Vicki Ott, Sandy Hausen and Erika Stahre had lots of fun being a senior and looked forward to accomplishing much in the future.

Igozi Anekwe has been very active during her years at Euclid. Here she is working at the Student Council car wash.

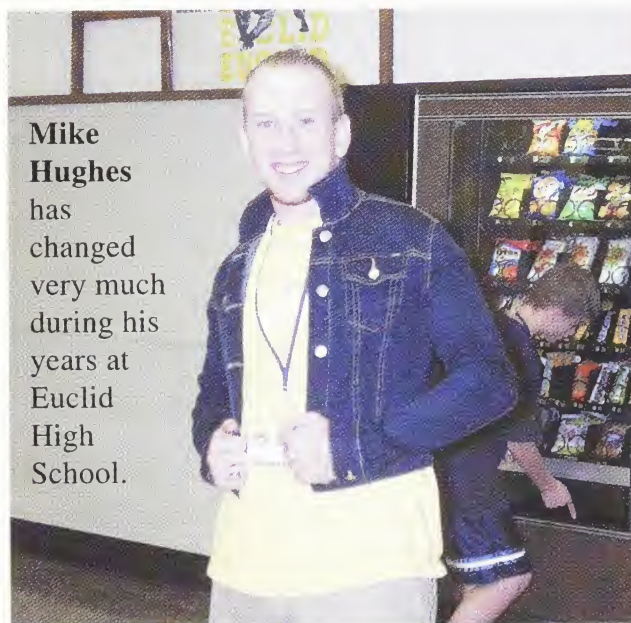

Tomson Glenn knows that she is going to have to be proficient in the use of computers to succeed in the future.

Christy Zimba hopes to make sense out of what is in the car she is holding.

Rebecca Waina has a really pleasant attitude about school.

Mike Hughes has changed very much during his years at Euclid High School.

Katy Farrell, Rebecca Waina, Sarah Hiscott and Leslie Hilton are hoping that good things happen to them in the future.

Tierra Caldwell, Tierra Mitchell, Andrew Fairman, Laniece Richardson and Stephanie Thomas are ready to work their way through their senior year.

Kari Cunningham directed the Marching Band on the field and greeted them as they entered the stands.

The varsity football cheerleaders had a lot of fun their senior year leading the crowd with their routines.

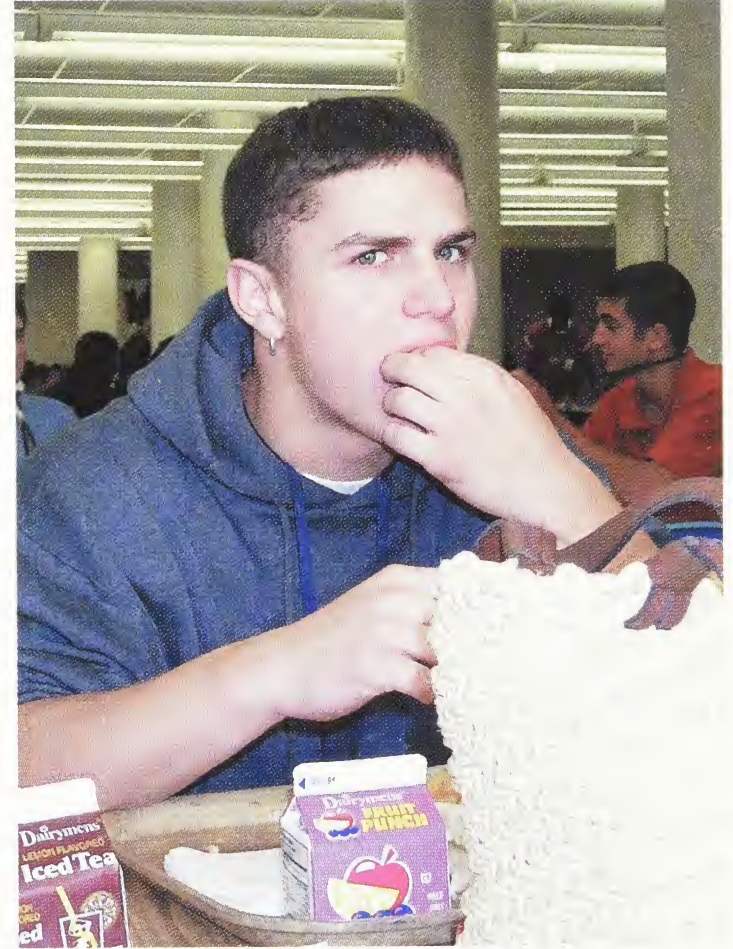

The seniors were at the top for now but soon they would be starting over

Keeping his eye on the ball. Jacob Mc Collum hits the practice balls before the match begins.

Kathleen Oprian has great plans for the future and has a good idea of where she is going.

The immediate plan that Sam Scaparotti has is to satiate his appetite.

Mira Osterman and Leslie Hilton are good students who work hard and have a good idea of what they want to do in the future.

Meg Harasym, Danielle Bailey, Dominique Drake, Christina Hagenbaugh, Katie Sivik and Jessica Morris enjoy their classes and hope to achieve great things in the future.

Sarah Hiscott is active in her classes and hopes to remain that way in the future.

Michael Collins seems to be thinking about what he will be doing in the future.

Robert Hudson studies hard to improve his chances for a successful future.

Andrea Sams uses her calculator to help her with her math problems.

Matt Scalse is horsing around with Mike Hughes. High school is a time for students to enjoy themselves but they have to prepare themselves for a life in the future.

GOT TO KEEP ON GOING

The seniors were the top class at Euclid High School and most of them were probably happy that they would be graduating at the end of the year. Many of them planned on continuing their education on the college level and knew what they intended on going in to. Some of them, however, did not know where they were heading and were going to college to have a good time until they flunked out. They couldn't go back to high school even if they wanted to. Things had certainly changed during their four years in the high school. Most of the students had some idea of where they wanted to go but those that didn't would end up wasting their time trying to do a lot of things that they weren't interested in. Many seniors had goals that were realistic, but others had goals that they were not prepared to attain. Everything was changing and a senior had to be focused in order to attain what they wanted.

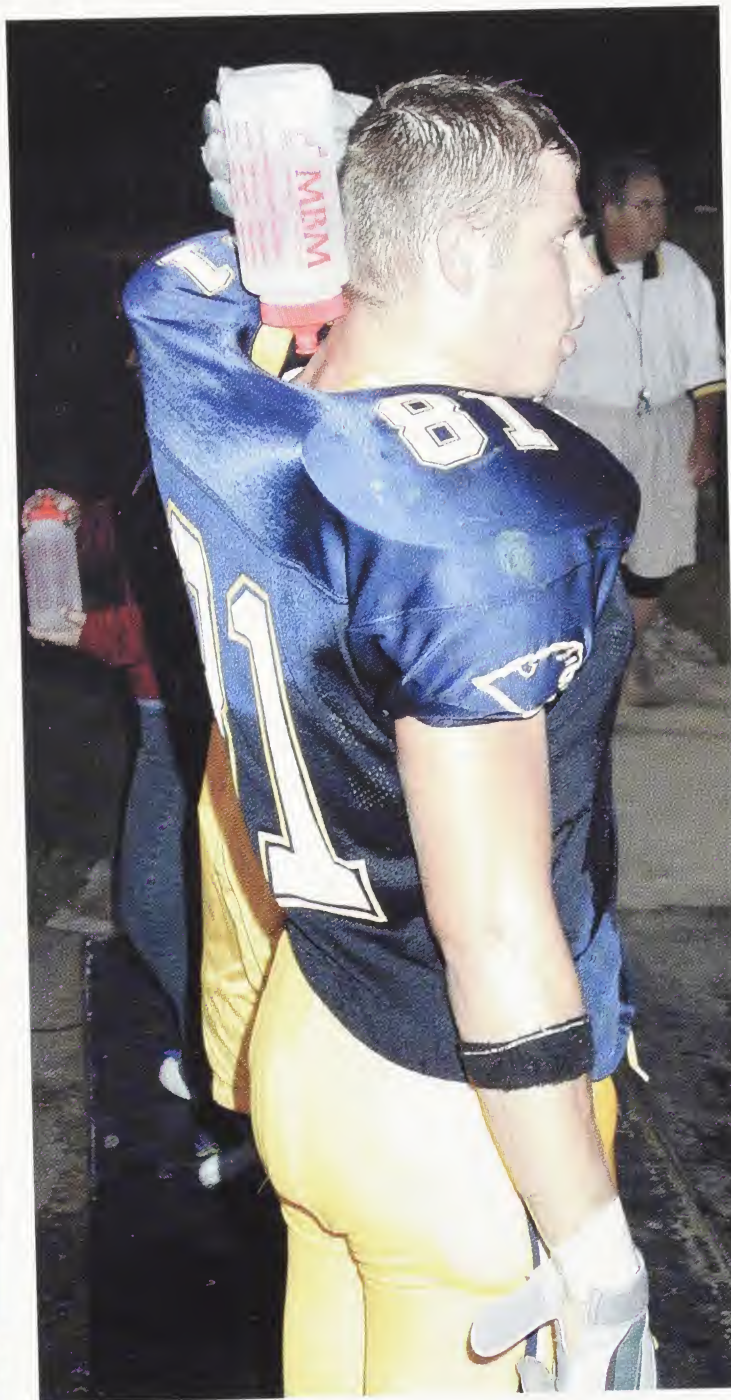

-Monica Germovsek

Mike Hughes, Denise Lavalley, Sam Scaparotti, Nicole Brinkley, Matt Scalese and Brandon Biehl know that they will have to find a way to put food on the table as they enter their future.

The time that these students spent at Euclid High School has changed their lives very much. They are getting prepared to live in the future world.

Ooooh, that feels good. Brad Kitchen cools himself off while he watches his team mates on the field.

The members of the Varsity Chorale are interested in music and will remain that way in the future.

Anthony Grida and Casey Kilkenney are talking about all the things that they hope to be achieving as they make their way through the rest of their lives.

Diondra Smith dressed up for mix-match day and advertised herself as a candidate for Homecoming Queen. It must have helped since she was voted the queen.

Frank Negolfka shows how much he appreciates job the 10th grade Unit Principal, Mr. Elie Thom has done for him. His future has been altered by this relationship.

TEACHERS WE LIKE

Seniors picked their favorite teachers

In the annual senior poll, seniors were asked who their favorite teachers were. More than thirty teachers were chosen by at least one senior. The teacher who got the most votes was Mr. Bill Von Benken. Mr. Steve Marcu came in second and Mr. Jeff Hartmann came in third. Mrs. Marketa President came in fourth and Mrs. Lisa Langford came in fifth. The rest of the teachers mentioned in no particular order were: Mrs. Jo-Rita Perez, Ms. Barbara Spiga, Mrs. Karen Boyle, Mr. Ron Zucca, Mrs. Karen Brown, Mr. Scott Wilson, Miss. Victoria Preslan, Mr. Reggie Echols, Mrs. Sally Pla, Mr. Jim Kelley, Mr. David Hathaway, Mrs. Fran Ratka, Mrs. Edie Mellon, Ms. Shon Smith, Mr. Mike Sheck, Mrs. Susan Withers, Ms. Mary Pelton, Mr. Larry Nosse, Ms. Tracy Weinhold, Mr. Mike Rezzolla, Mr. Martin Meyers, Mrs. Lisa Platko, Mr. Craig Haywood, Mr. Scott Hudson, Mrs. Ingrid Koenig, Mr. Ken Vehar, Mrs. Kim Dixon, Mrs. Margaret Metti and Ms. Barbra Masseria.

Mr. Jeff Hartmann gets out among his students to communicate with them. This is one reason why Jeff is one of Euclid's favorite teachers year after year.

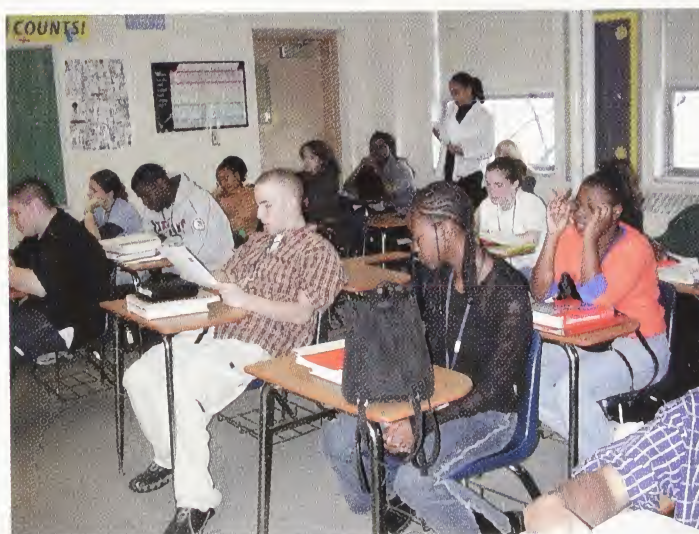

You have to be able to speak in order to succeed. Mrs. Marketa President wants her students to understand the importance of understanding English in their future.

The coaches want their players to learn about honesty and self-respect in order to play the game responsibly.

Watching his students learn. Mr. Jim Kelley supervises the learning going on in his classroom.

Preparing students for the future. Ms. Kim Dixon wants her students to understand all the information that is necessary for life in the future.

Passing their papers back. Mr. Steve Marcu returns some papers that have been graded to his class.

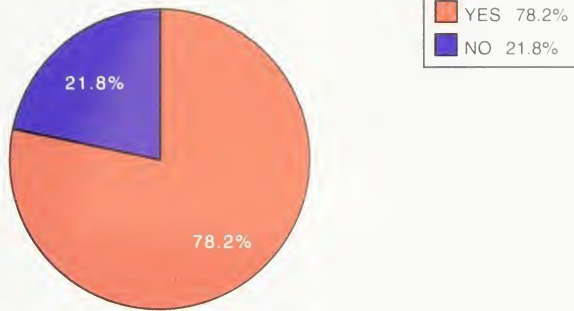

An understanding of history is important in understanding the future. Mr. Jeff Hartmann tries to convey an appreciation of history to his students.

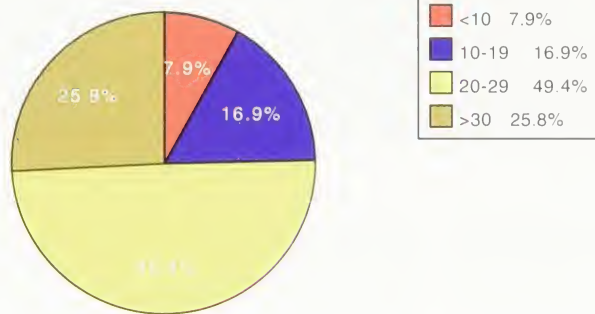

EARNING THE GREEN

Most seniors have a job to support their interests

DO YOU HAVE A PART-TIME JOB?

How many hours do you work per week?

Having a job was a way for students to have a disposable income. It was far more common for seniors to have a job than not. In the senior poll more than seventy eight percent of the seniors responded that they had a part time job. This was a little less than the previous year. Some seniors work as much as forty hours at their jobs but the most common number of hours was 20 - 29 hours per week. Some seniors had a job since it gave them a little extra spending money but most seniors had a job in order to pay for things like car insurance college and clothes.

Lower Row: Cristina Pacheco at Convenient and Sabrina London at Walgreens.

TOO STRICT??

Most seniors feel discipline is too harsh at EHS

DO YOU BELIEVE THAT DISCIPLINE AT EUCLID HIGH SCHOOL IS TOO STRICT?

Do you believe that discipline was too strict at Euclid High School? Most of the seniors did. In a poll of seniors about two out of every three seniors thought it was too strict. Students envisioned a world in which there were no rules. Unfortunately, the world was not like that. With more and more people around there had to be rules that everyone had to follow if everyone was going to be able to live together. Rules were always going to be present. Students had to learn how to exist within their framework.

Above Left: Before the students could come into Homecoming they had to check in at the reception table. The couples had to agree that they would follow the rules that were set for the event.
Left: After the students got into the dance they had to follow the rules of good behavior.

PRESENT AND FUTURE

Students enjoyed their years at Euclid and are looking forward to college

The years in Euclid schools had a great influence on the students that passed through them. They were going to be different people from the youngsters that began the educational process many years before. Whether or not a person enjoyed their years in school depended on the person. When the seniors were polled as to whether they enjoyed their years at Euclid over eighty four per cent said that they did. This was slightly lower than the response from the previous year. The future involved college for many of Euclid's seniors. Over ninety one per cent said that they were planning on going to college after they graduate. This was also slightly less than the results that the previous year gave. The seniors were also asked if they had attended Euclid schools all their lives. Almost sixty two per cent said they had. This was much different from the previous when only about forty four per cent said they were in the Euclid schools all their lives.

Getting a check up. Kurt Schnell is being checked out by Gina Ellis to make sure he is healthy. Gina has attended Euclid schools all her life.

Helping your hands clean prevents the spread of diseases. Mike Ferencz and Kristy Kontra wash their hands to remain healthy.

Helping students get along together. Johnita Hughes and Ron Hill learn mediation skills from Ms. Kathleen Mc Donnell to help students enjoy their years at Euclid.

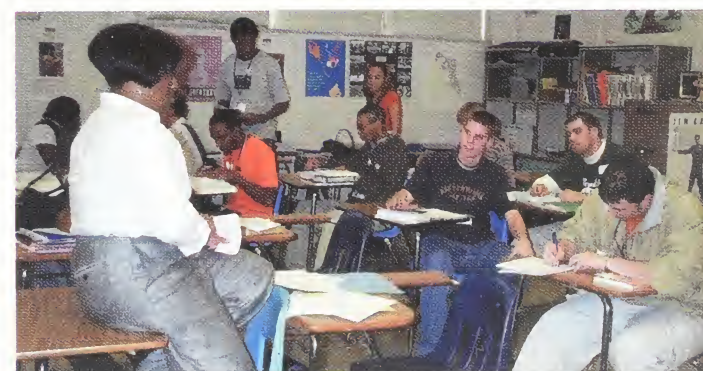

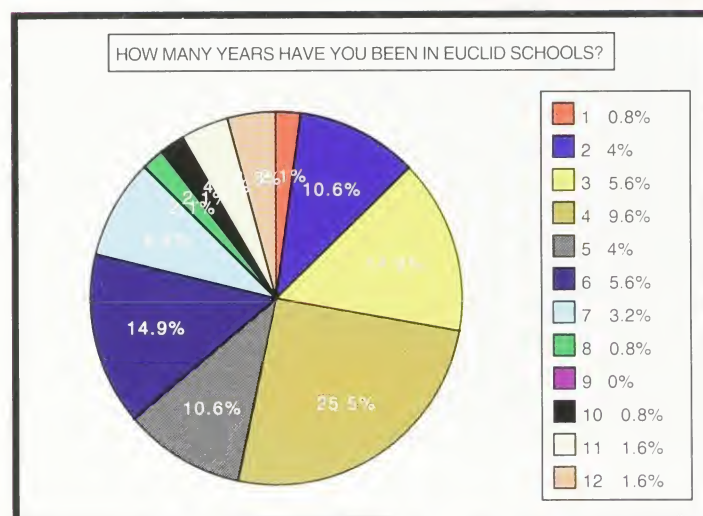

Learning about each other's interests. Leslie Hilton is at some of Rachel Lewan's accomplishments.

The seniors on this page had their pictures taken on October 16 which was the make up day. Their pictures did not get back until way after the rest of the senior pictures. Because of that, these could not be included with the rest of the senior pictures.

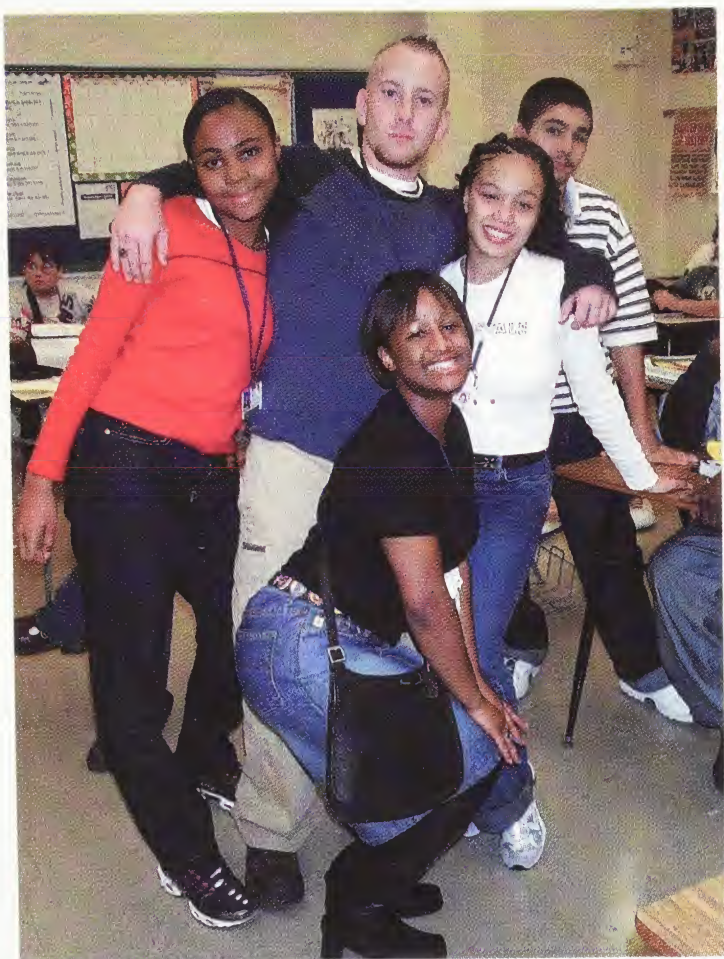

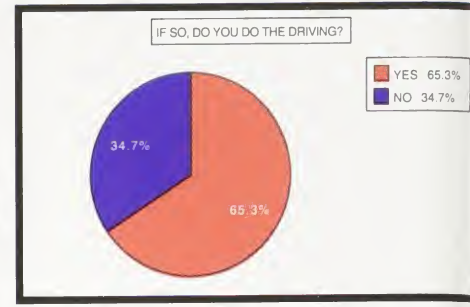

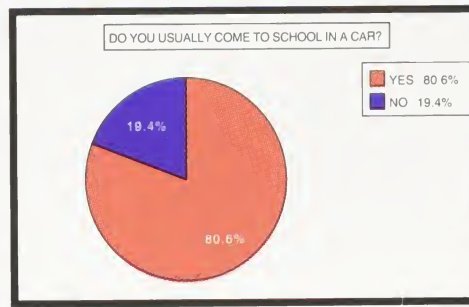

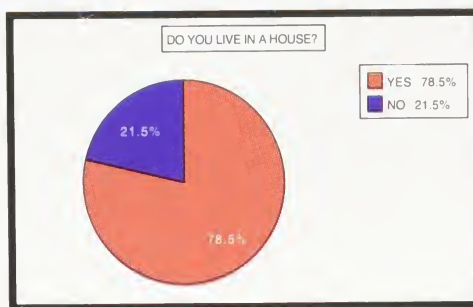

Brad Kitchen takes a cool drink of water when he's off the field.

HOME AND DRIVING

Most Euclid students call a house a home and drive to school from it

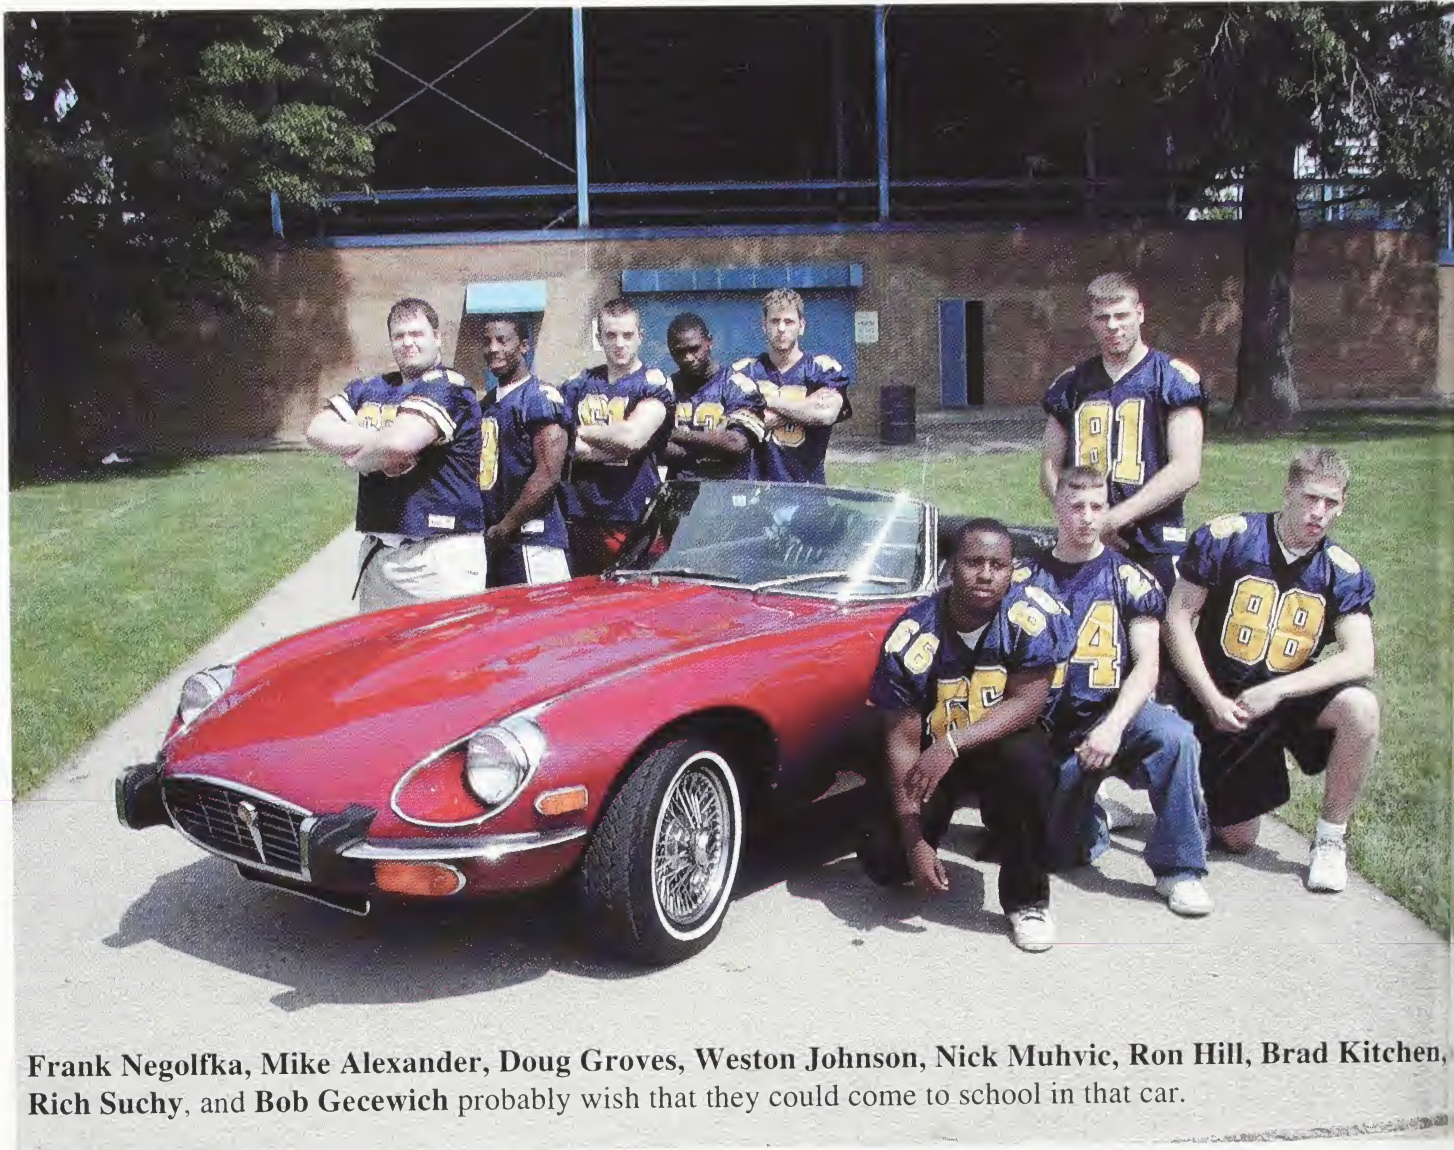

Almost eighty per cent of the seniors who responded to a poll said that they lived in a house. This was lower than the eighty six per cent that reported that they lived in a house the previous year. Seniors were also asked if they come to school in a car and if so whether they did the driving. More than eighty per cent said they come to school by car and more than sixth per cent did the driving. Both of those values were higher than the values reported the previous year. All of these values were similar to those reported for the last several years.

When students drive to school they are responsible for getting themselves there on time. They cannot say that the bus was late.

Jasmine Oliver, Tierra Caldwell, Latosha Smith, Tierra Mitchell and Laniece Richardson enjoying each other's company at lunch. Most of these girls get to school by car.

Frank Negolfka, Mike Alexander, Doug Groves, Weston Johnson, Nick Muhvic, Ron Hill, Brad Kitchen, Rich Suchy, and Bob Gecewich probably wish that they could come to school in that car.

Tony Grida and Chris Gates are friends in school. Chris gets to school in a car.

Many of these students in Mrs. Barbra Masseria's class come to school in their own cars.

Vince Patete, Ben Milroy and Brad Kitchen getting together in class and waiting until they get a chance to drive home.

Ngozi Anekwe, Warren Jenkins and Austine Clark are active in school activities and sports and can't rely on the bus to get them to and from school.

HOW EMBARRASSING

Seniors talk about some of their funnier moments

As students progressed through their years at Euclid High School there were many events that occurred that they found embarrassing. The seniors were asked about some of their embarrassing moments and these were their responses.

Amzi Anekwe was at a boys basketball game in a room full of people and tripped up bleachers.
Nicole Bailey tripped about three times in the hall on her way to first period.
Julie Bender tripped up the stairs.
Wayne Black was trying to look at a girl and ran into a trash can.
Tracy Blakeney was embarrassed when they tried to kick her off the cheerleading squad for no reason at all.
Jennifer Boehlke had her shoe fall apart in tenth grade.
Rick Chapman rode down steps on a big wooden board for a video.
Michael Collins was sleeping in German class when Mrs. Ingrid Koenig woke him and told him that he had been snoring and farting.
John Creer was walking down the hall during her freshmen year when a maxi pad popped out of her purse and everybody saw it.
Tim Cunningham had some free time at the Woollybear Festival when a group of classmates grabbed her and gave her the worst wedgie ever in front of the other members.

Madeline Davis fell down the stairs by the library.
Marion Davis was in ninth grade when she tripped up the stairs.
My Deramus also fell down the stairs.
Tom Dodd was embarrassed when he enrolled at Euclid.
John Dorsey was in ninth grade when he tripped up the stairs.
Michael Duckworth was walking into school as a junior near the E-room entrance and in the water. No one saw it except Mrs. Pat Repko, but the whole day she had on her pants and she already had a broken arm when she fell.
John Ellis was so confused as a freshmen she went to lunch fifth period instead of first. After she bought her food she realized she didn't recognize anyone and realized she was in the wrong lunch period. The lunch lady held her lunch until she came back a period to eat her cold lunch.
John Estes was only seven when he got a whooping in J.C. Pennys.
John Fende was a freshman when she tripped up the stairs.
Tom Fisher fell up the stairs five times, and tripped over his wide leg pants while going up the stairs.
Michelle Fofanah fell running up the stairs.
John Fumich spilled barbeque sauce on her crotch in her khaki pants.
John Gates was a freshman when he was depants by a bunch of seniors in front of Ron Seymour.
John Gecewich was embarrassed when his biggest crush, Allison Deal, asked Chris to Homecoming instead of him.

John Glenn fell out of her chair in the cafeteria.
John Gorse got arrested while streaking.
Lia Griffin was riding her bicycle with her eyes closed. Her friend was supposed to be directing her but instead she ran right into the back of a parked car and flew up the back of the trunk with everyone watching.
Christina Hagenbaugh literally ran into a telephone pole (not with a car).
Harasym got hit in the head with a frozen water bottle at the VASJ football game. She was taken out of the stadium with a bag of ice and a bloody towel on her head. She was taken by ambulance to the emergency room where she had to sit for two hours in her band uniform. After putting two staples in her head the doctor remarked that the band was becoming as dangerous as the football game.
Chris Hart was embarrassed when Latasha Johnson posted an internet picture of a girl and said it was Deloris.
John Hartman walked into the wrong class.
John Harris fell down the stairs between classes in front of a lot of people.
John Harrold threw a skittle at the radiator and the whole class got punished and no one knew it was his fault.
John Henderson began to get ready for basketball at the end of class and began to pull her pants down before she realized she did not have her shorts on underneath.
John Hill got hit in the head with a door.
John Hongosh went to sixth period lunch after a Big Show performance of Grease and had lipstick and eye shadow on.
John Hudson tripped down some stairs.

Jessica Johnson fell down the stairs.
Latasha Johnson was bending over at the vending machine and her pants split.
Jerrold Jones' brother pulled his pants down when they were outside.
Dave Kenderski sweated a lot at the Winterfest dance.
Katie Ketchum was on the stage crew for Big Show 2000 and got caught on stage twice when the lights came on. Everyone saw her yelling "What?" off stage.
Lisa Koller was practicing for Big Show Grease where she was Patty Simcox and without even knowing it, she went from talking peppy to talking with a Texas accent.
Brandy Koratich was chased around the E-room and had deodorant rubbed on her shirt.
Rebecca Kyker was in English class with her crush and she had to get up in front of the class and read and she accidentally said her crushes name instead of the name in the book.
Kate Manes almost fell down the stairs when she tripped over her shoes.
Tara Mc Connell fell up the stairs.
Adria Mc Gill was taking a corner kick during practice when she slipped and fell on her ass in front of the girls and boys soccer teams.
Darrell Mc Griff got caught forging his teacher's name.
Segundina Mc Pherson tripped down the stairs as a freshman.
Tierra Mitchell tripped up the stairs.
Tameisha Moore was running down the stairs during her freshman year and fell but she got right up and acted like nothing happened.

Chineika Moorer fell at work and everybody saw her and laughed.
Jessica Morris was a freshman when she wrote a note to a senior guy that she liked. When she gave it to him he acted as if it was a pretty immature thing to do.
Nick Muhvic was pushed down the stairs by a senior when he was a freshman.
Frank Negolfka got crabs from the bathroom toilet.
Joshua Nelson fell off his bike.
Vince Oddo was embarrassed when he came to the school.
Jasmine Oliver had to wear her ROTC uniform when she was a freshman.
Laura Osterman was running backwards during a drill during volleyball practice when she fell on her butt.
Vickie Ott was at her dates' house before Homecoming her junior year when she got the heel of her shoe caught on the stairs and fell to her knees while in her dress.
Rachel Potocnik tripped up the stairs as a freshman and a bunch of seniors laughed at her.
Makeda Prater fell down the steps as a freshman.
Alana Purvis tripped on her skirt walking up the stairs at the Homecoming assembly when she was the sophomore attendant.
Aaron Randall tripped up the stairs and everyone began laughing.
Renee Renbarger fell up/down the stairs.
Anthony Ricci had his pants pulled down in the hall way by his friend.

Ryan Richardson was on his way to lunch when the pen he had behind his ear burst and got ink all over the side of his face.
Shawna Riley was walking in the parking lot with two friends after school. It was cold so she decided to run to her car. She tripped and rolled three times and ended up laying in the middle of the parking lot until a friend helped her up. Everyone was laughing.
Mike Schoen accidentally walked into a senior class the first day of his sophomore year and the teacher told him that it was a senior class.
Kristen Schutte fell up the stairs.
Tonika Shaw tripped down the stairs.
Valeria Shipp ran into some weights during TAC class and then tripped over some more weights.
Jessica Short fell up the stairs.
Luke Shy fell while snowboarding at Holiday Valley and had to be Lifeflighted to Erie County Medical Center.
Shona Smith tripped up the steps.
Kai Stoudemire went to turn in her food tray and milk splashed all over the cafeteria aide and she was mad.
Megan Strukel fell up the stairs.
Steve Trobenter fell down half a flight of stairs as a freshman.
Emanuel Williams fell asleep in a class and didn't wake up until two periods later.
Joe Zuzic tripped up the stairs.

CHANGED FOREVER

Anyone who liked to exercise and get fresh air knew that they could participate in sports at Euclid High School. There were many different teams that a person could choose from, whether their interests were towards football, soccer, baseball or basketball, and it was a great way to become involved in the activities at the school. It was also fun for people who felt they had too much free time after school and needed something to join. Sports would always be a great place to find healthy competition and to meet new friends. After participating in a sports program, many student's lives were changed forever.

STARTED OFF SLOW

Panthers win last four games to finish at 6-4 for the season

The 2001 Euclid Panther Football team worked hard to achieve their goals at the Sparky DiBiasio Stadium this past fall. Head coach Mike Rezzola pushed his players to put forth all they could. This was proven in the VASJ/Euclid game. Sophomore Delano Rodgers ran the team to an exciting 30-27 victory. With the help of junior Tim Basalla making a 24 yard field goal to tie the game at 27 and booting a 21 yard field goal to win the game. This was only the Panthers 5th win out of 30 tries against the Vikings. Playing quarterback, Delano Rodgers completed 57 of 130 passes for 908 yards. He also carried the ball 114 times and gained 496 yards. Co-MVPs, Michael Alexander and Weston Johnson showed their leadership throughout the season. Both were selected for the L.E.L. First Team, along with Nicholas Muhvic, Brad Kitchen, and Delano Rodgers. Also picked for the News-Herald All-Stars was junior Jerome Young. Receiving honorable mentions from the News-Herald were Delano Rodgers, Jerome Jackson, Allen Richardson, Doug Groves, Lester Spence, Corey Russell, Ron Hill, Rayshaun Kizer, and Averette Hagler. Nick Muhvic was chosen for the Defensive Lineman of the Year while Ron Hill was the Offensive Lineman of the Year. Most Improved Player of the season was junior Jerome Jackson and Averette Hagler was named Defensive Back of the Year. Throughout the season the team developed a cohesiveness that enabled them to play at a higher level as they came to the close of the season. The season finished at a record of 6-4, making them third in the L.E.L.

Volleyballers dig or die

This year's Volleyball season proved to be the best it had been in past years. Coaching the varsity team for only her second year, Rhonda Scharf lead the girls to a fun and prosperous season. Captains Erika Stahre and Dominique Drake showed their leadership with the help of senior Diondra Smith and returning juniors Kristi Tutolo and Cory McRedmond. Showing great effort and promising skills juniors Jessica Ivancic and Vesta Dvareckaite, and sophomores Monique Drake and Jenna Herzberg, contributed greatly to the team. Although young, much was achieved this Volleyball season with the girls finishing with a record of 12-12, advancing to the second round of districts.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT

New coach brings in new ideas to wrestling team

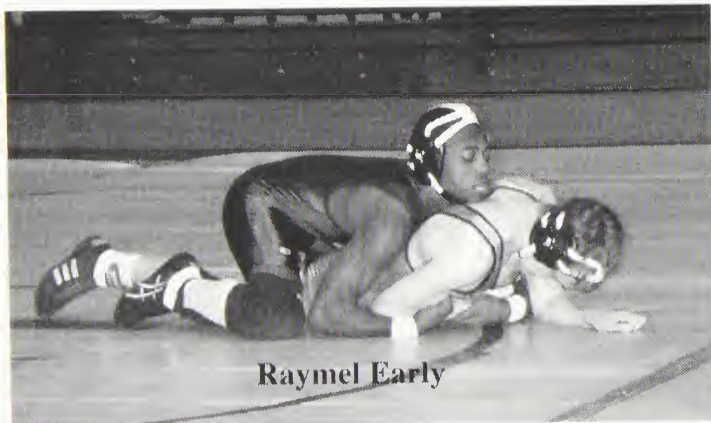

An amazing thing happened to the 2001-2002 version of the Euclid Panther wrestling team. They actually looked good and they won many matches. One of the reasons was the addition of Mr. Joe Tucceri as wrestling coach. Joe, who graduated from Euclid in 1996, was a wrestler and was state runner-up as a senior and had a lot of experience on the mat. He got a lot of kids to believe in themselves and become interested in wrestling and because of that there were far fewer forfeits because of lack of participation. In past years forfeits were a problem which often led to 20 or more points for their opponents. This year that was a thing of the past and Euclid's opponents had to fight for every one of their points. The matches were suspenseful and many of the wrestlers were exciting to watch.

Victories ran away from the boys

The 2001 Boys' Cross Country team worked hard but was only able to finish 5/7 in the L.E.L. Junior, Mike Watson, was the highlight of the season finishing well in all the races and posting a 16 minute 9 second time for the 5 km course that the team ran. This turned out to be a Euclid course record. The rest of the team was not able to keep up with Mike's pace so the team did not finish well in most meets. During the season, VASJ was the only dual meet which ended with a one point victory. Seniors, Jim Kolenc and Joe Rinella, worked hard and were an inspiration for the other members of the team. Mr. Steve Rodriguez coached the boys and had them practice for the meets by running around the streets of Euclid for 6-7 miles each day.

This year's Girls Cross Country team had a great season. Throughout the season they were at a lack of depth. At points in the season there were over ten runners and at the end they were struggling to qualify with the minimum of five runners. The team was led by seniors Trayce Stewart and Krysti Schieder. They were strong runners and leaders on the team. Senior Candace Davis also provided stability in the races and practices. The team's strongest runner was freshman Tiffany Compton. Tiffany was an amazing runner and athlete. She placed among the top runners, at the varsity level in every meet. Tiffany also qualified at districts for the regional competition. She ran in the regional competition and gave a good show for her first competition. Junior Angie Bendahan was also a member of the team who constantly tried her hardest and gave her best effort in practice meets, due to injury she couldn't finish the season. The team also had a first year cross-country runner Amelia Mehtar. She tried through the season to learn the sport and how it all worked. Over the span of the season she eventually improved. This season was a struggle for depth but was a growth process for the team.

EXCITEMENT ON THE COURT

Boys basketball worked hard against some tough opponents

The 2001-2002 basketball season started off with opening victories against Wickliffe and Elyria. However, the Panthers then hit a rut and lost 4 out of their next 6 games, which included a loss to rival VASJ 59-57. The Panthers then came in second in the first annual Euclid Holiday Tournament losing to Brush in the championship game 67-57. The team defeated Cleveland Heights both times for a sweep that hasn't occurred in a long time. Euclid then avenged the earlier loss to VASJ defeating them on the road 54-50. The Panthers ended the season on a great note winning 4 out of their last 5 for an 11-9 record and 6-6 in the tough L.E.L. The team was led by seniors Aric Croone-Cain, Michael Holloway, Cyril Ekuibe, Warren Jenkins, Greg Williams, and Andrew Fairman who all had great performances at one time or another. Junior Brandon Mimes also came on strong after Fairman reinjured his leg. Other team members with good performances were seniors Courtney Taylor, and Mike Alexander. The Panthers were coached by Mr. Sean O'Toole who is now in his second season.

STRUGGLING FOR SHOTS

Girls basketball had a young team to compete with the rest of the schools

The 2001-2002 Lady Panther basketball season was an interesting one. Inconsistency was a big part of the year that saw the team finish with a 4-17 record. When they were on, they were really on but most of the time they were off. The coaches felt they should have been able to do better. The team had little experience so the year was a time for learning and growing. Sophomore Le Shay Johnson really stepped up and with senior, Ngozi Anekwe were the leaders on the court. The team had a lot of talent but lacked experience to get it to work together. This year the whole team grew both as people and as players. As the team neared the end of their season, they began to show their real talents. It took a while but the girls had a lot to be proud of. They put in a lot of hard work throughout the season which should help them in the upcoming seasons. Mr. Scott Wilson and Ms. Rhonda Scharf were the varsity coaches while Mr. Sam Santilli was the JV coach.

The Lady Panthers Varsity soccer team had a disappointing season. Last year the team had a record of 12-3-2 and with only three seniors lost were expecting a good record and a good shot in the 2001 playoffs. Even under the leadership of senior co-captains, Amber Fumic and Tara McConnell, Adria McGill, and Rebecca Waina, the team could not seem to pull their talent together on the field.

The team was coached by Felicia Rosati, and Joanna Lewis. The team had eleven returning letter winners, including the four seniors captains, and juniors, Stephanie Black, Heather Rufo, Meghan Ryan, Tara Shimooka, and Stephanie Svoboda, and sophomores Crystal Phillips, and Michelle Zudic. Also joining the team this year were sophomore Cassandra Meier who would have been a letter winner if it weren't for an unfortunate preseason ankle injury, and freshman Rebecca Christopher, Amy Lorig, and Ally Mon.

The team's season ended in the first round of the playoffs during a freezing, rainy game against Madison. The team held Madison to a 0-0 game through the first half, but Madison came out in the second half and scored two goals to Euclid's one. The team ended the season with a record of 6-7-3, which definitely did not reflect the amount of talent the team had. The team had many good seniors which would be missed in the future.

TEAMS HAD A ROLLER

Boys and girls soccer teams fought hard

Coached by John Gibbons, the Panthers improved their record this season. Led by tri-captains Tim Basalla, Joe Zuzic, and Michael Zudic, the team fought their way through their opponents. Against a tough schedule, Basalla provided an offensive threat along with senior Matt Salisbury, junior Kurt Long, and sophomores Chris Smith and Krishna Spence. Zuzic controlled the midfield with junior Greg Stahre and freshman Daniel Zudic. With support from Dave Harrold, they fed passes up to the forwards and helped as an early defense against attacking teams. Under constant attack, Derek Mattson controlled the defensive line. Support came from senior Luke Shy, juniors Phil Marunowski, George Palko, and Cameron Sharp, and freshman Robbie Vasquez. Michael Zudic made the saves in goal. Mike Zudic, Joe Zuzic and Tim Basalla were picked for Second Team by the News Herald. Special Mention went to Dan Zudic and Honorable mention went to Kurt Long. With numerous unfortunate losses to quality teams, the team ended the season with a deceiving 5-12 record.

LOST THE EDGE

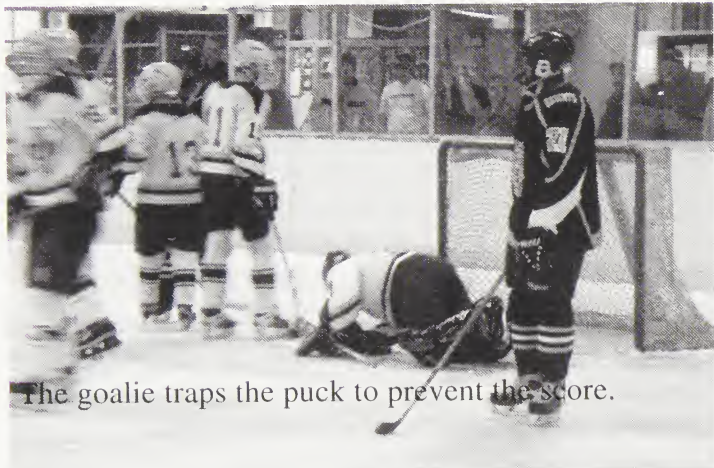

Panther hockey suffered from lack of depth

The 2001-2002 Euclid Panther Hockey Team had a tough season. Led by seniors Chris Gates, Tony Aquilano, and Brad Kitchen, the team was able to finish third in the Red Southeast Division, which was a step up from the Blue Central Division that the team was in the past. They finished with a season record of 12-14. Steve Trobenter and Derek Mattson were stars in goal, and were major factors in winning many games. Although the team did not have as many players as their opponents, they were able to step up to meet the challenge and surprise a few people by beating out Cleveland Heights and Hudson in great games. The team was coached by Frank Soltesz and Georgi Fedulov.

GETTING PREPARED FOR

Indoor Track gives students a chance

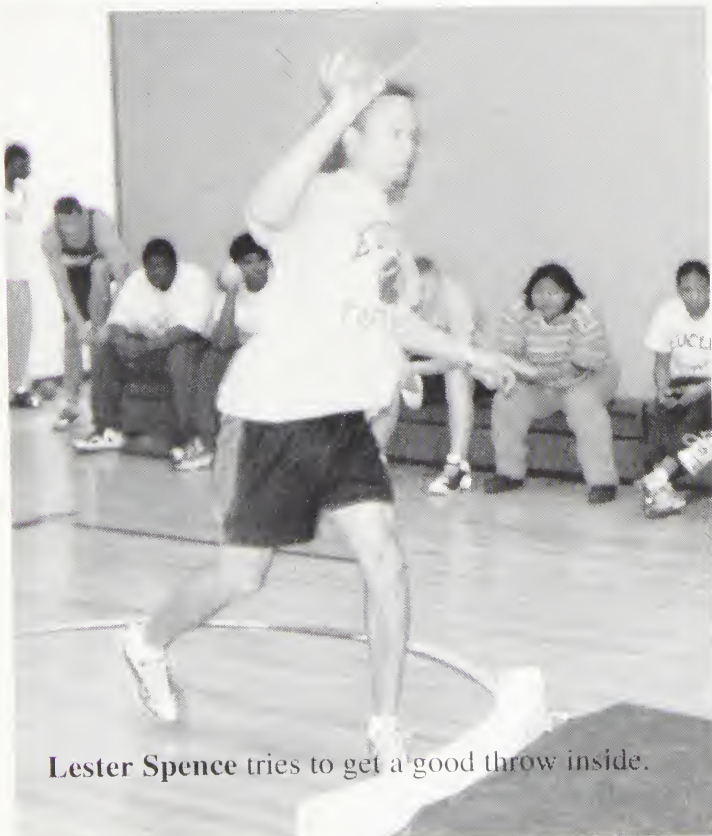

The boys' Indoor Track team were able to do very well during their meets in the winter. It gave the athletes a chance to get in shape for the tough outdoor season that would be coming up in the spring. The team would work out indoors during the week and would usually have a meet on Tuesday afternoons. The meets w with one, two or three other schools so there were lots of athletes moving around on the indoor track or the hallways.

PUTTING THE CHEER

Football and basketball cheerleaders won

This year the Euclid Cheerleaders worked hard to bring enthusiasm and pride to the panther fans. The Varsity, J.V., and Freshman squads all had energetic and dedicated coaches that helped them throughout the season. The squads did their best to be loud and optimistic at the cold football game nights. They started putting together their cheers in July so they could be completed prepared for the long season.

CHANGED FOREVER

Not everyone was interested in sports and some students just wanted to participate in something else as well. Either way, there were many clubs and groups that met after school for those students. They were both fun and they gave students something to do instead of just sitting around doing nothing in front of their television all day. From Key Club to the newspaper to Big Show, these clubs were a great way to meet new people and to get involved in life at school. As a member of these organizations their lives were certainly changed forever.

ALL THAT JAZZ

Jazz Band impresses audience with their upbeat sounds

The Euclid High School's elite group of musicians gathered together on December 10, 2001 to perform their second concert of the year, their first since performing at Richmond Mall the previous Friday. Directed by Dianne Tizzano, the band got things started off with an energetic swing of "Feliz Navidad". Next, the group played a light mambo-type piece called "Juan of These Days", with a solo by Kari Cunningham on alto saxophone. Later in the evening, solos were also performed by Jonathan Calabrese on trumpet, Robbie Paternite on drums, Greg Brinovec on trumpet, and guest artist Jean Wroblewski on trombone. The East 222nd Street Jazz Band practiced by meeting after school once a week in the band room. Tryouts were held in mid-autumn to select members and determine chair placements. The upbeat sound of the Jazz Band playing Christmas favorites kicked off the season's festivities in a positive and uplifting fashion.

RHYTHM AND MUSIC ON THE FIELD

Marching Band supplied the music and visual entertainment during halftime

The 2001 Panther Marching Band began the new school year with an enthusiastic start. Directed by Diane Tizzano and assisted by Jennifer Leyrer, the band officially began their season toward the end of summer. Band camp was held throughout the first two weeks of August, where band members learned new music, charts, drills, and fundamentals for their upcoming football halftime performances. The band concluded their long weeks of time and dedication with a preview show and a trip to Cedar Point. Led onto the field by Senior Field Commander Kari Cunningham, and Junior Field Commander Ross Salupo, the marching band debuted their performance of Show One at the opening home game against Lake Catholic. The greatly anticipated show consisted of: Para Los Rumberos, Rock the Boat, and I Want Candy. Towards the middle of the marching season, students began to learn new music and charts for Show Two. Show Two premiered at the away game against Lakewood on a cold and rainy Friday night. Despite the weather, the band was still able to successfully complete the show, which included: School's Out, Sing, Sing Sing, and Let It Whip.

The Marching Band also performed a special halftime show at Homecoming, on Friday, October 12. The theme from Dances With Wolves was played, and the night ended with the 1812 Overture accompanied by fireworks and cannon shots.

Aside from the Friday night games, the band also spent much time playing out at other special occasions. They performed at the Woollybear Festival in Vermillion, the Brush High School Marching Band Festival, and at the public elementary schools. They also spent much time organizing fund-raisers like the Walk-a-Thon, the annual Tag Day, and for Holiday Catalogs.

The Marching Band ended their season near the end of October, and finally travelled to Florida in mid-November. The Marching Band had an energetic and terrific season that was an enjoyable experience for everyone who was involved.

WAVING THOSE FLAGS

The Flag Corps puts motion into the halftime show

The Euclid High School Flag Corps did their share of screaming at football games, staying after school, dancing at halftime, and having a great time. The Flag Corps consisted of twenty-four girls who were broken down into six squads of four girls each, having on squad leader, and two juniors, Lyndsey Woyton and Jennifer Balogh, who were captains. The girls got started out by traveling to a three day dance camp at Ashland University. While there, they learned different dance styles and how to perform better on the field. Before school began, in late July, the Flag Corps also attended two weeks of band camp in which they practiced marching, learned their charts for the first halftime show, and worked with their directors, Mrs. Tammy Ewing and Mrs. Pat Kapeluch, to decide the different dances they would perform on the field.

One member on the Flag Corps, Kim Carotenuto, said that the season was a very enjoyable one. "I liked the games, the football games on Friday nights. It was a lot of fun," Kim says. When asked about the leadership and performance of the captains, Kim said "I think the captains did a good job for their first year and not knowing what they were getting themselves into." Kim was a sophomore at the high school and had been in the Flag Corps both years. She was also very excited about going on the trip to Disney World with the band, orchestra, and Varsity Chorale. The Flag Corps performed along with the marching band in the "Share A Dream Come True" parade in the Magic Kingdom.

The Flag Corps once again put together a series of entertaining dance routines that made people watching from the sidelines smile and laugh out loud again and again. From game one of the season to the last play of the year, the Flag Corps girls were cheering, dancing, and having a wonderful time. Each and every one of them was a delight to watch!

Row five: Christina Hooks, Susan Burkhart, Brittany Meadows, Denise Gaddies, Valerie Taddie, Marshellis Dancy, Stephanie Nunley.

Part of the Flag Corps routine was the girls doing a chorus line in which they kicked and danced.

Before the game began the Marching Band, Flag Corps, and Majorettes performed on the field before they played the National Anthem and the Alma Mater.

The Flag Corps members lined up before the game so the football players could run down the line.

The Flag Corps members had a lot of fun dancing waving their flags to the music.

SINGING AND DANCING

Choral Masters and Choraliers sang the music

Choral Masters, an integral part of the Euclid High School Music Department, has been in existence for nearly thirty-five years. Singing songs in four part harmony, the choir consisted of sixty-five members and was a beautiful sound to be heard. Under the direction of Mrs. Reiko Carey and Assistant Director Shauna Ross and the accompaniment of senior Jessica Morris and Seth Connelly, the group practiced every day during seventh period in preparation for concerts such as the Christmas Concert at Richmond Mall, concert at Severance Hall's L.E.L. Festival, and the final EHS spring concert. Several students in the group were also in the high school's elite show choir, Varsity Chorale. President, Alana Purvis, Vice President, Jessica Morris, Treasurer, Marcus Epps and Secretary, Catrera Dean helped Mrs. Carey by keeping records, discussing business and collecting money for certain activities.

Third year member, Dan May, felt that Choral Masters was a great group to be in because it gave teens a chance to express their feelings through music and to become more culturally aware with music of many different styles. President, Alana Purvis hoped that the group could enter competition against other choirs throughout the state in the future.

Overall, choral Masters was a great activity for students to be involved in at the high school not only because it allowed them to use their talents through singing, but because it also introduced them to many different types of music and allowed them to make new friends in the process. Mrs. Carey and Mrs. Ross were very dedicated to the group and worked tirelessly to make it the best it could be now and in the future.

-Dan Vazquez

The 2001-2002 Choraliers took a different turn from previous years. Instead of consisting of just freshmen girls the 2002 Choraliers included girls from Varsity Chorale. Because of that the songs were a little more difficult and included a variety of voice ranges. The group was directed by Mrs. Reiko Carey and Mrs. Shauna Ross.

Orchestra and Concert Band put on

The Euclid High School Symphonic Orchestra presented their concert on Thursday, December 13, 2001 in the auditorium with the Choraliers, Choral Masters and the Varsity Chorale. They performed a variation of classical music selections, and they combined with the Choral Masters and the Varsity Chorale for a mixed instrumental and vocal finale. Throughout the school year they participated in fund-raising drives and played at the Richmond Town Square. The Symphonic Orchestra was directed by Mrs. Cathy Vetovitz.

ORGANIZE THE SCHOOL

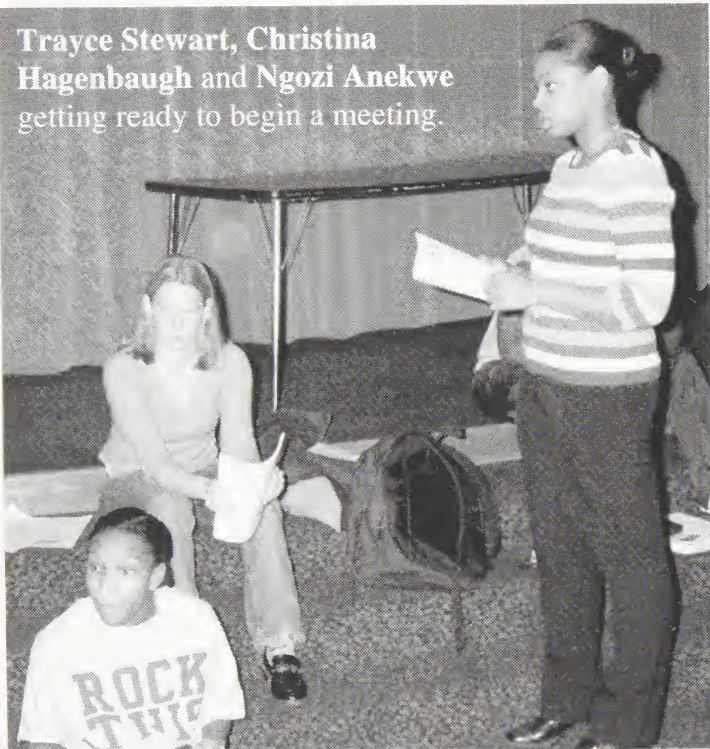

Student Council puts together the school's activities

Student Council was the organization that organized many of the activities that occurred at Euclid High School. Some of the activities that they sponsored were Coats for kids and the Red Cross blood drive. Student Council also sponsored the school dances like Homecoming, Winterfest and Prom. Using the money they earned from the dances and other fundraisers like the parking raffle and pictures with Santa, they were able to decrease the price of the Prom bid. Under the advisement of Mrs. Marcia Knauss and Mrs. Sandi Mc Redmond the members helped serve their school and community.

CHILD'S PLAY

Fall Play was an hypnotic success

This year's fall play was "Child's Play". It was a romantic comedy about an agent who was hypnotized by a famous hypnotist and began behaving like a five year old. She then received help from her roommate who was bored with her life and was looking for adventure. The roommate's grandparents contributed to a major part of the humor in the play. Fall play was filled with laughter and romance. Directing the play again this year was Christina Peterson.

STARLIT FANTASY

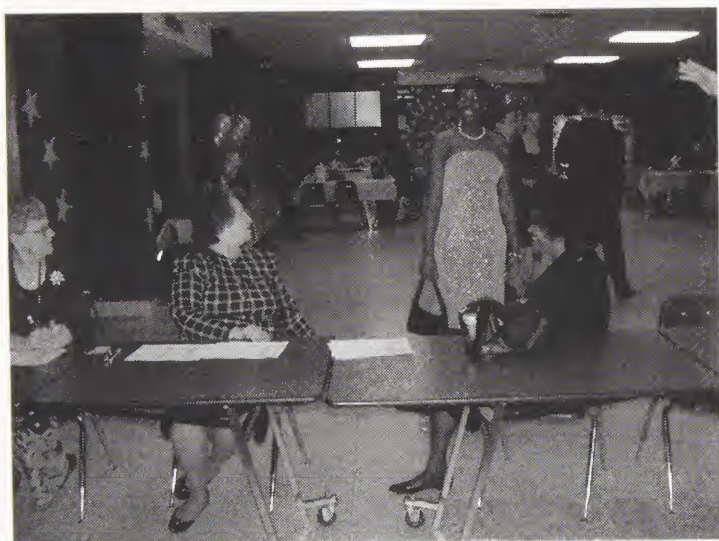

Winterfest offered students a chance to get together and dance

The annual Winterfest dance was held on Saturday, February 23, 2002 in the E-room Ballroom from 7-11 PM. The theme of the dance was "Starlit Fantasy" and the colors were light blue and light purple. The attendance this year was very low, only 126 students attended, possibly because of a stricter dress code and a five dollar price increase from past Winterfest dances. Because of the low interest there wasn't even a King or Queen for the dance. Even with the low attendance, everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Professional pictures were taken and punch, brownies and cookies were served. Two very strange men were hired as disc jockeys for the evening, they played a variety of music: rap, hip hop, alternative and line dances. At the end of the evening each person received a snow glob picture frame to take home as a remembrance of the night.

-Stephanie Svoboda

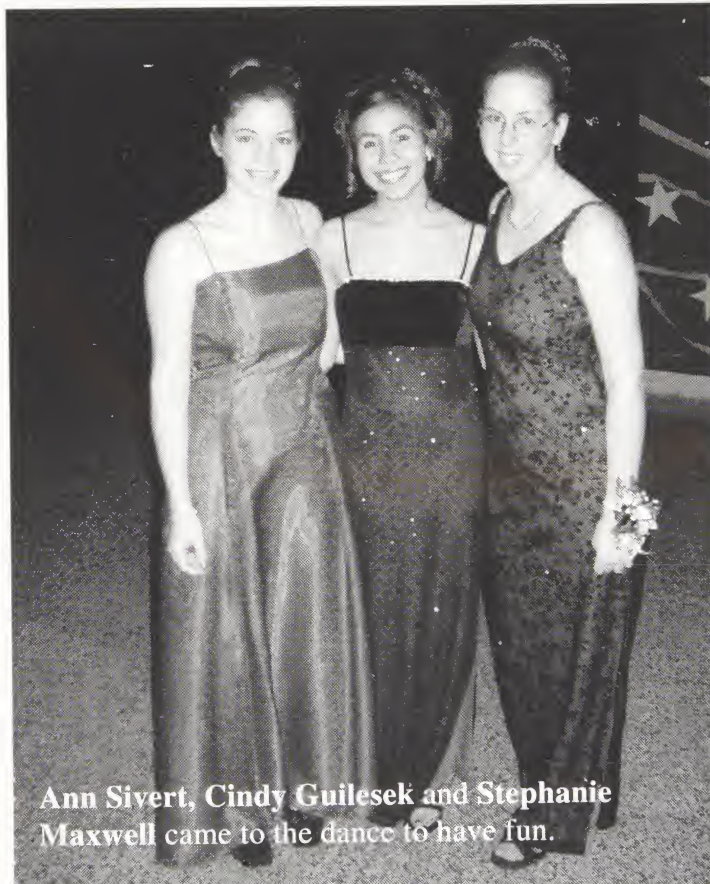

Kari Cunningham, Dominique Drake, Alana Purvis, Danielle Mahone, Kathleen Oprian and Elizabeth Gudaitis got together to welcome people to the dance.

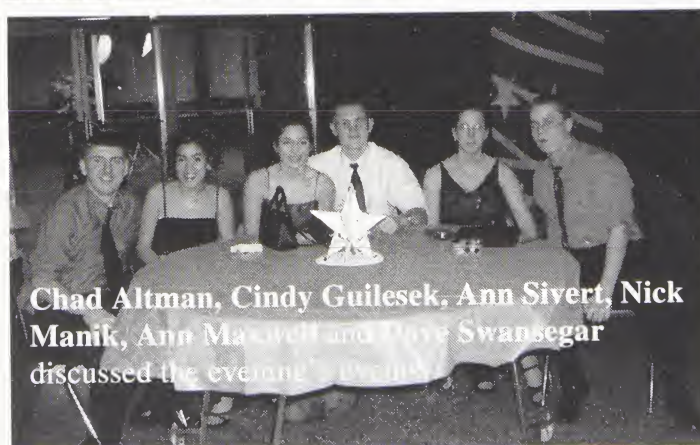

The attendees were greeted at the door where they had to show their tickets.

HOW DO OTHER CULTURES LIVE?

A.F.S. tries to expose students to life in other places

The A.F.S. Club at the Euclid Highschool was run by Mrs. Pam Amos. A.F.S. stood for American Field Service. It was for students interested in learning about different countries and cultures. In the American Field Service Club learning about different ethnic groups and their cultures was enforced. The A.F.S. Club did not meet on any certain days. It depended upon what activities were happening. All meetings were held after school.

On Wednesday, February 6, 2002 the technical programs at Euclid High School had their annual Career Tech Day in which they demonstrated their programs for the rest of the school. This year it was held in the hallway just North of the East gym. Many vocational programs such as Art, Automotives, Law Enforcement and others set up booths so students could see what the programs offered.

HELPING AROUND THE SCHOOL

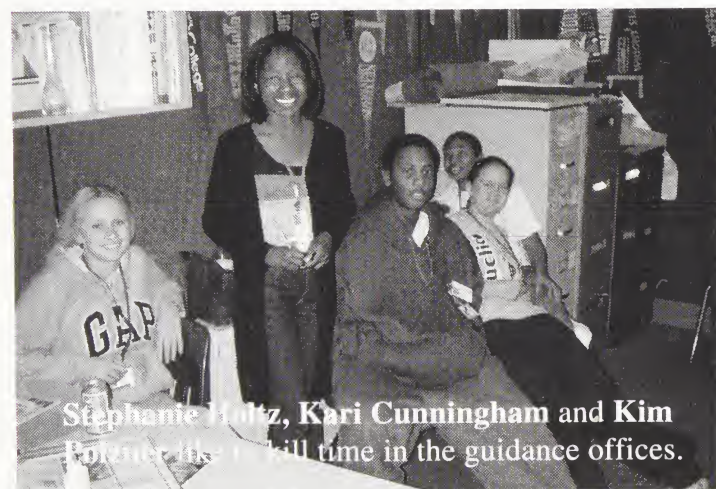

The Office and Clinic Aides help the school run smoothly

One of the many activities that a student could elect to do during a free period was to be an office runner or office aide. There were many different offices that made up the school including Guidance, Security, A.V., the Main office and many other department offices. Some of the responsibilities that the office aides had were checking of mail boxes, getting students from classes, do basic filing, mail information out to teachers and many other duties. Students gave up a study hall so they could help out the teachers and the administrators.

They also got the added perk of being able to attend the annual runners party with free food.

KEEPING THE CARS RUNNING

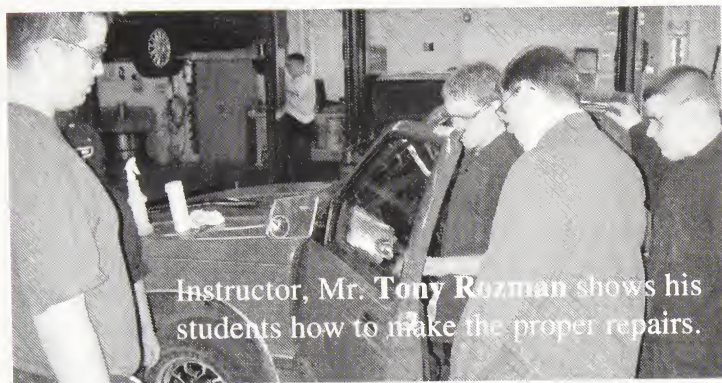

Vocational Automotive trains students in automotive repair

The Vocational Automotives course at Euclid High School prepared students for a lifetime career. Beginning in junior year and continuing through graduation, students were trained on the most up to date diagnostic equipment. Mr. Tony Rozman provided the leadership to educate these young automotive technicians during a three period class daily. In the classroom and in the shop, students learned auto systems and how to repair them. Rest assured, Euclid High School trained technicians were ready and able to tackle every automotive repair needed.

MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS

Diversified Cooperative Training helps students learn about retail business

Diversified Cooperative Training (DCT) was a program where students learned about the business world in class in the morning and then went to a job in the afternoon to apply what they had learned in class. Second year instructor, Mr. Randy Bramel, gave them their instruction while they were at school and then visited them at their jobs to evaluate their performances.

STUDENT CREATIVITY

Eucuyo publishes work created by the students

Eucuyo was Euclid High School's literary magazine that published works written by the students. The students submitted poems, prose, and art which was then reviewed by the Eucuyo staff members who then selected the pieces that were to be published in the magazine. Last year the Eucuyo won first place in the National American Scholastic Press Association competition under the direction of first-year adviser, Ms. Laura Boyd. SERVICE ORGANIZATION

Key Club helps those who are less fortunate than others

The Euclid High School's Key Club was a community service organization that was sponsored by our city's Kiwanis club. Keyclub gave students the opportunity to give back to the community and help others in need. The members in the club participated in such projects as visiting Gateway Retirement Home, volunteering at the Children's Museum, collecting money for the New York crisis, and also holding lock-ins for various causes. President Kari Cunningham, 1st Vice President Jacqui Greene, 2nd Vice President John Koeth, Secretary Jennifer Shea, and Treasurer Leslie Penko all worked hard to think of project ideas and keep the members active. After participating in the club, students truly feel enriched.

This year's Peer Tutoring program at the Euclid High School was run by Ms. Barbara Spiga. To have been chosen to be a peer tutor you must have completed the courses with all A's or B's and demonstrated exceptional abilities in the subject. If you had been selected to peer tutor in one or more subjects you received a letter in homeroom in mid-September, telling the subjects you could tutor. Tutoring was available during lunch periods, study halls, or after school.

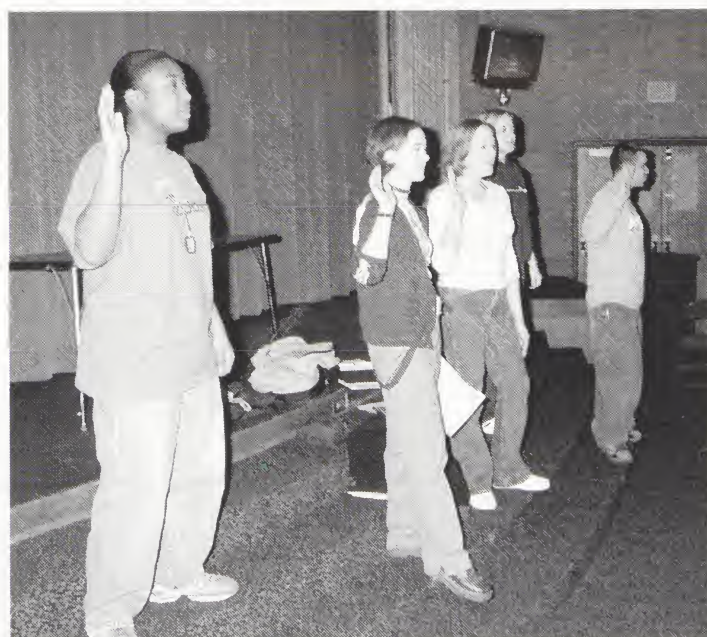

After signing up, a match was made by subject and period between the tutor and tutee. A tutoring assignment was sent to the students in homeroom. It told the names of the tutor and tutee, days and periods tutoring, and some instructions and guidelines. On the assigned days they reported to the library and each person signed in on the lists. There was a designated area as to which the students would go to study quietly.

After three weeks the tutor received a Tutoring Progress Report. The tutor answered questions regarding his student's progress. If the tutoring was then discontinued the tutor and tutee was informed in homeroom. Advantages of the Peer Tutoring program were that students are helping fellow students, skills that might have been needed were reviewed for future use, and it was used for extracurricular activities on college applications.

Have you ever looked for a peaceful place to go to during or after school? Well, a good place to find peace would be the Mediation Room. The atmosphere was always peaceful. It was a place where students tried to get rid of any conflicts that existed between themselves. The purpose of the mediators was to resolve conflicts between students. In the mediation process, mediators would listen to the students in conflict and try to get them to talk about their problems. The mediators attended many workshops and were trained in how to listen and respond to students in conflict. Before entering the mediation process the students in conflict were likely to end up fighting each other. If the mediation process was successful they would talk their way out of fighting. Mediation was trying to peacefully resolve a conflict that existed between students. Ms. Kathleen Mc Donnell was the director for the students and organized all their activities.

REWARDING THE BEST

NHS members have to live up to the highest standards at the school

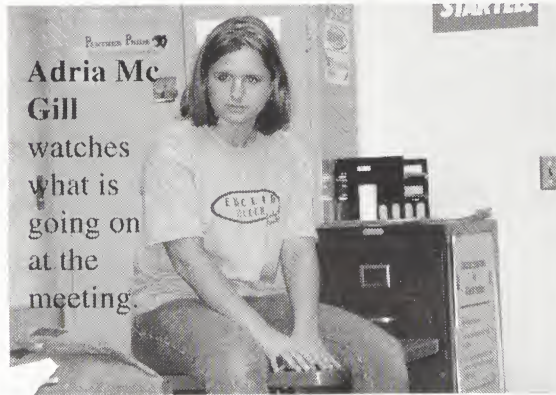

The National Honor Society consisted of the highest academically achieving and active students at Euclid High School. In order to be considered for membership students had to have a high grade point average but that was not enough. They had to be active in organizations both in and out of the school. They were also graded by all the faculty at the school. Members did a lot to help the school run smoothly. They volunteered at events and helped at different functions throughout the community. Members were elected during their junior and senior years of school. Ms. Diane Maroli was the adviser for the group.

INTERACTIONS OF NATIONS

Model UN helps students understand how nations interrelate

This year Model UN was a learning experience for all its members.

The seven new members, a mix of juniors and seniors, went down to Cleveland State University on three occasions and interacted with students from other schools while they learned what it was like to be members of the real UN. Supervised by Mr. Roy Pignatiello, they discussed things like parliamentary procedure, the global fight against HIV/AIDS, and terrorism.

MAKING THE NEWS

The P. A. announcers and the media technicians

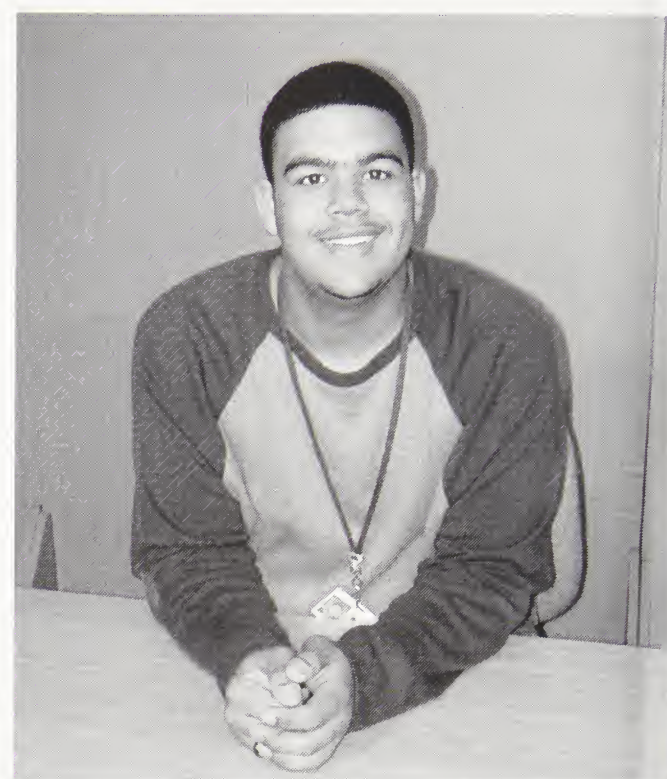

Two vital contributions to the Euclid High Schools morning announcements were senior, Greg Williams and senior, Jarod Miller. The two combined with Dan May and Segundina Mc Pherson and presented the daily news to all members of the student body during the morning announcements. When they arrived in the morning they were given the announcements that they were going to read that day. They had little time to practice what they had to say. They had the important job of conveying information to the students that was pertinent to them. Mr. Allen Black controlled what was going on during the announcements and made sure that everyone got to hear what was necessary.

EARNING THE BIG BUCKS

Having a job was a big part of a student's life

Many people had part-time jobs. They weren't much fun and rather time consuming but they were also a great way to earn some extra cash. Even people with little spare time found that they could work a night or two on the weekend. Students who worked like that were actually earning money themselves and so had a better understanding of the value of a dollar. The only downside was that students with jobs had less time to participate in extracurricular activities or had less free time for themselves. Thus having jobs in teenage years will have dramatically changed their lives forever.

-Sophia Catlett

We're having a lot of fun at our jobs. Katie Collins, Katy Farrell, Michael Collins and Tara Potulski enjoy opportunity to keep the Euclid Public Library in an orderly condition and to interact with each other.

STORING STUFF

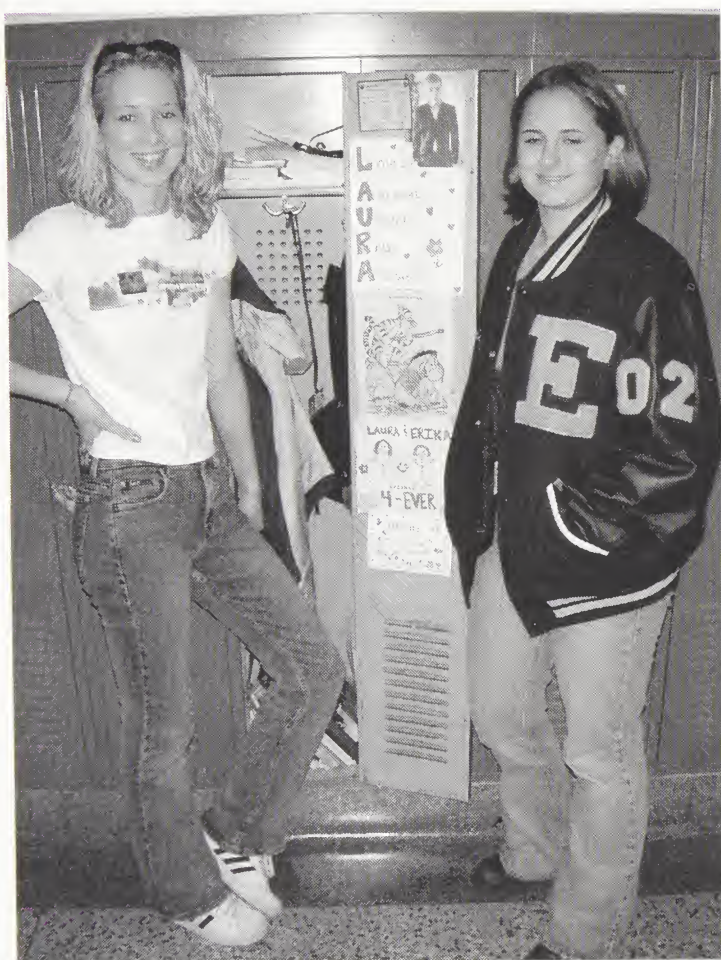

Students use their lockers to keep themselves organized

Lockers were a closet for tossing your belongings into. Some people kept their lockers clean and tidy, others cluttered the small space with papers and books. Still, there were also those who were a bit more creative, decorating the insides with mirrors, posters, magnets, and pictures. This gave each locker a feel of individuality and made the student feel more at home. While the teens aged through the years, their lockers reflected the changes that took place in their lives.

IT'S ONLY SCIENCE

Science Olympic Team challenges other schools in science understanding

The Science Olympic Team consisted of a group of students who were interested in science and wanted to compete with other schools in contests that tested their mastery of science. The students signed up for activities that were performed singly or in groups of two. They then practiced what was necessary to understand these activities. In February there was an inter-school competition held in Cleveland where the students got a chance to compete against other high schools. They got graded on how well they did their activities. Mrs. Kathleen Rodgers was the adviser for the group.

CHANGED FOREVER

Academics was the major reason that the students were in school. They learned from the staff and the teachers information that changed their lives forever. The students were influenced by everything that went around them. They absorbed that knowledge like a sponge. Some of the things around them were good while others were bad, but regardless, it was information that was taken into the student's being and processed. It influenced what the students thought and how they reacted to different stimuli. High school was a time for growing and the staff at Euclid High School had a very influential part of how the students looked at and thought about the world around them.

Art teacher, Ms. Tracy Weinhold, wants Tamika Smith to understand the intricacies of fine artwork so that she can use this in her later life.

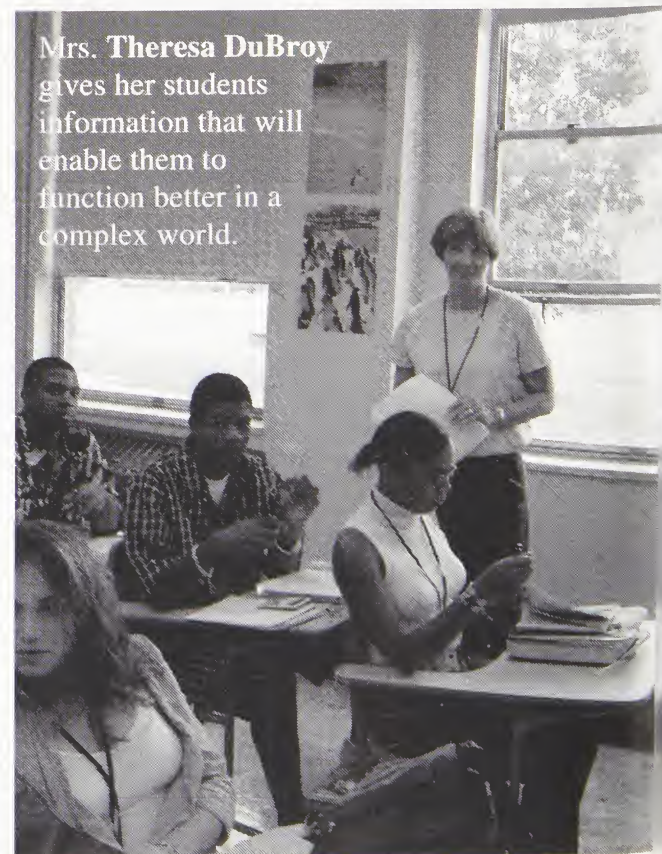

Working hard to keep the building running smoothly, Associate Principal, Mr. Justin Antonini, and Principal, Mr. Ronald Seymour, spend lots of time in their offices and in the halls.

The students in Mrs. Kathleen Rodgers classes will be forever changed by the material that they learned.

Members of the CRUX look to Ms. Diane Tizzano for spiritual leadership which will change their lives.

HELPING TO CHANGE LIVES

Euclid's staff has a great influence over student's lives

Once again, fresh faces as well as old were seen throughout the building as the E.H.S. staff continued to help the growing students learn. Leaving memories behind to create new ones some teachers decided to call it quits and retire leaving room for the new members of the staff to fill their open positions. With the assistance of these fine educators, the students gained knowledge that would help them throughout the years to come. The teachers impacted the lives of their students so much that it has changed their lives forever.

CHANGED FOREVER

Students entered Euclid High School as ninth graders and left after being in the twelfth grade. This was a time of life when the students were changing very rapidly. The picture on ninth graders ID looked very much like the person but by the time the student got into the upper grades that ninth grade picture no longer looked like the person. The students changed very much as they progressed through the grades at high school. The underclassmen changed grades, friends, likes, dislikes, attitudes, feelings and personalities as they progressed through their high school years. It was a great time for meeting people and learning things. They were changed forever.

Cheerleader, Kasey Collins, enjoys a slice of pizza during the halftime ceremonies.

Academic Challenge. Amelia Mehtar, Steve Rohl and Kristen Kulbis practicing for the Academic Challenge team.

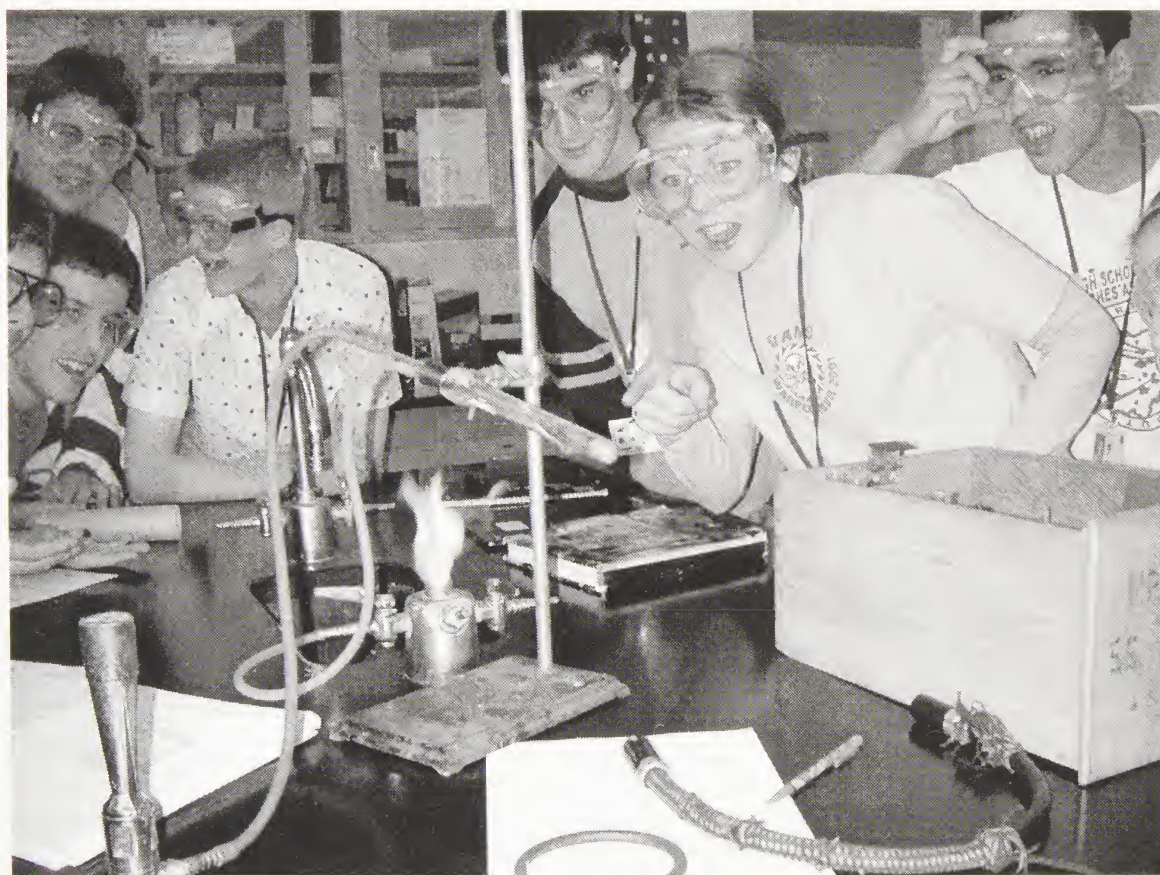

Jason Hayes, Larry Taylor and Ross Salupo know that working together can be useful in the present and in the future.

ONE MORE YEAR TO GO

Juniors show more maturity and have more knowledge as they move up the ranks

For many students their junior year was the most enjoyable. This was because juniors got most of the advantages of being an upperclassmen without all the pressure and responsibility of being a senior. One of the advantages was being able to attend the assemblies, instead of having to watch them on small closed circuit televisions in homeroom. Another advantage was being able to begin searching for colleges and universities. Another nice thing about being a junior was not having to worry about being pushed around by upperclassman since juniors were an authority figure around the school. As a junior you still had an opportunity to bring up your G.P.A., if you needed to, or join a club or sports team for the last two years of high school. Juniors usually took more meaningful classes like chemistry, algebra II, American history, English and a higher level foreign language since most have passed their proficiencies. Juniors also got the opportunity to eat the second half of the lunch periods. Juniors did not have the pressures of having to keep up their grades to get into college, pick a college, fill out college applications and meet application deadlines. Soon they would be leaving their friends and/or family and beginning a new life.

-Rebecca Nyers

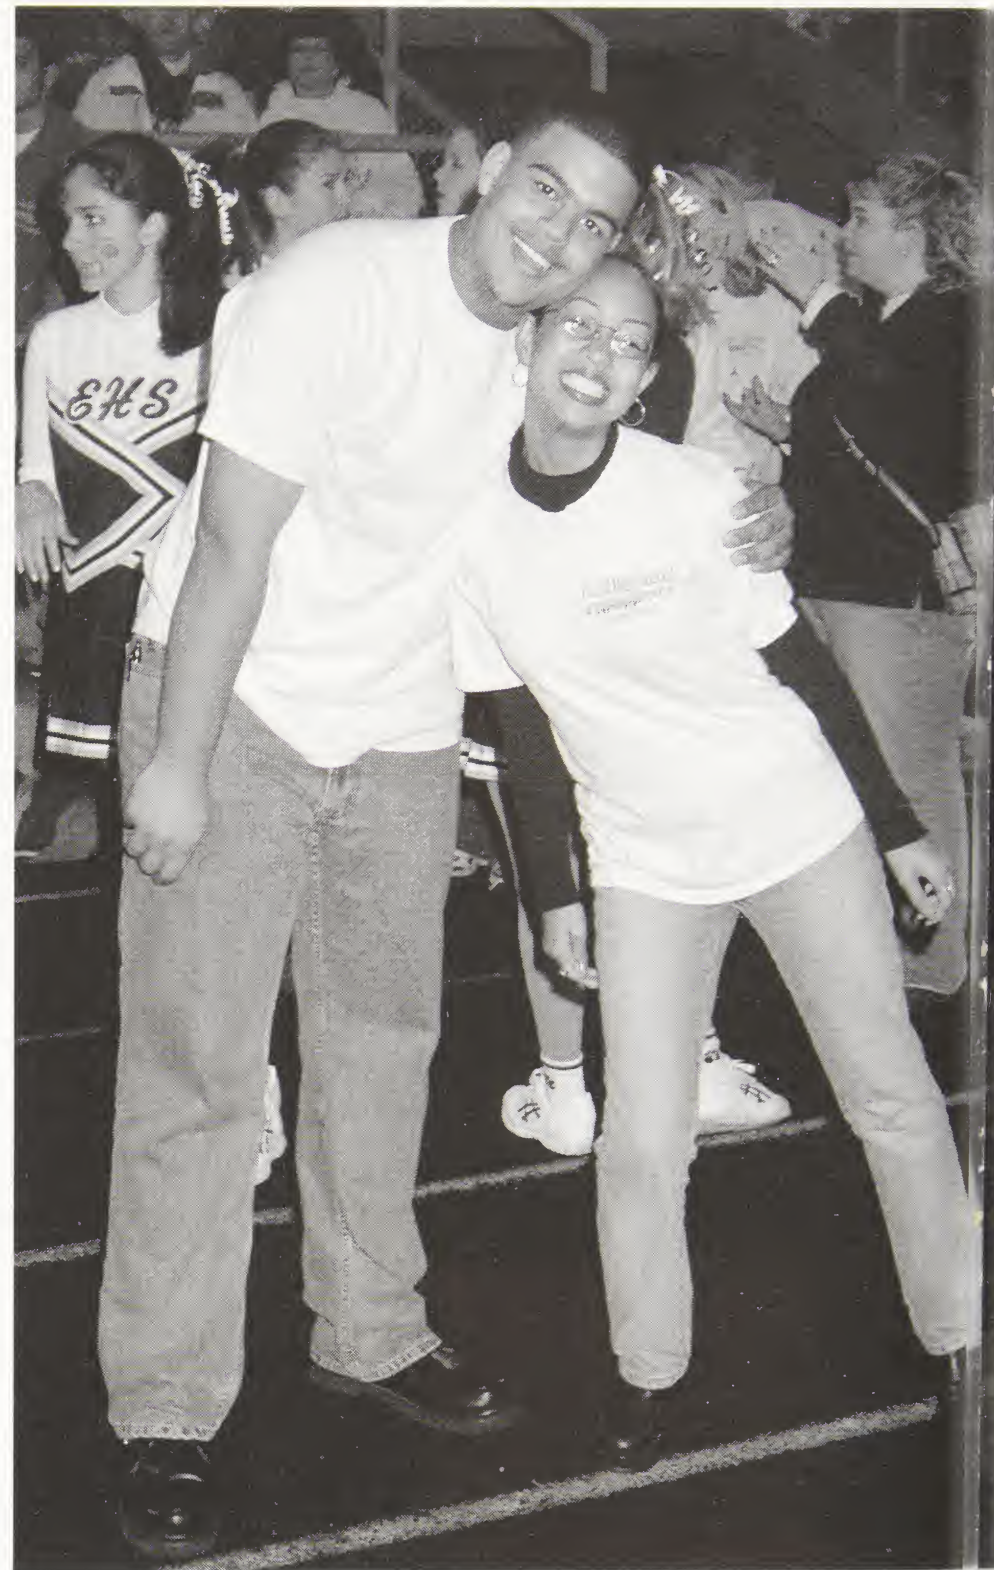

Look at the fire! Mike Manfredonia, Anthony Bagwell, Larry Taylor, Mike Zudic, Stephanie Black and Adam Lenin watch a chemistry experiment that didn't work out quite right.

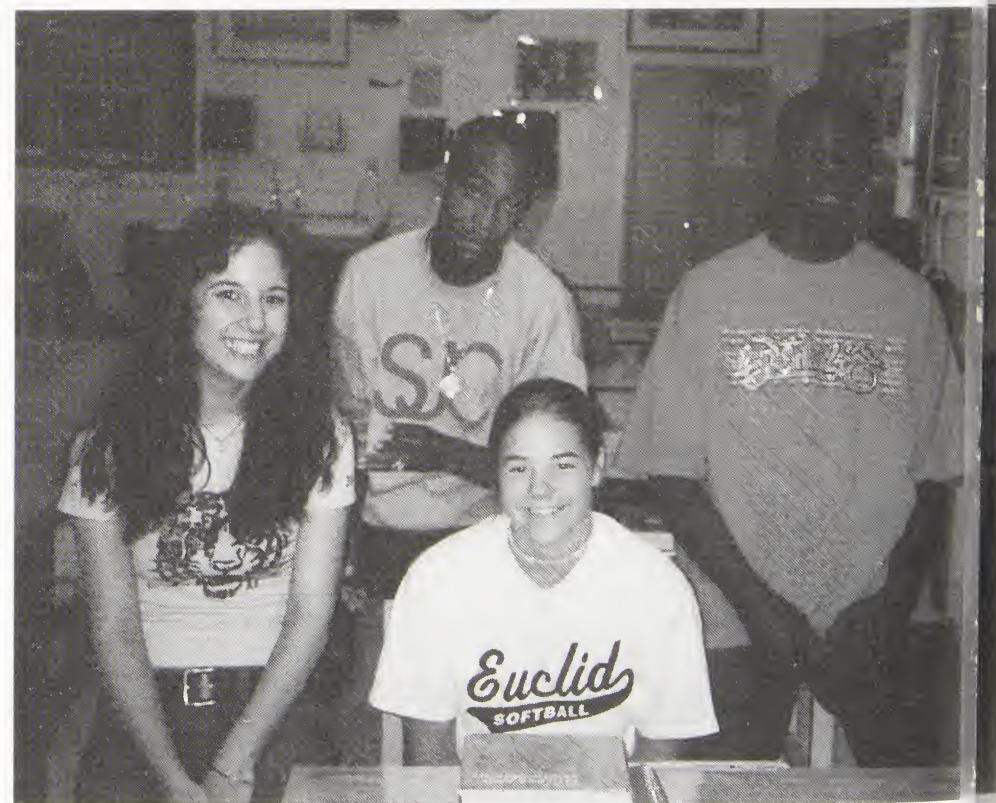

Mike Manfredonia, Sarah Petrochic, Nick Hosa and Darlene Kuhen wanted people to support the Survey.

Right Above and Right: Jacqui Greene, Leslie Penko and Kari Cunningham and Liz Miller, Jenny Shea and Jessica Jurcak enjoying their year in school.

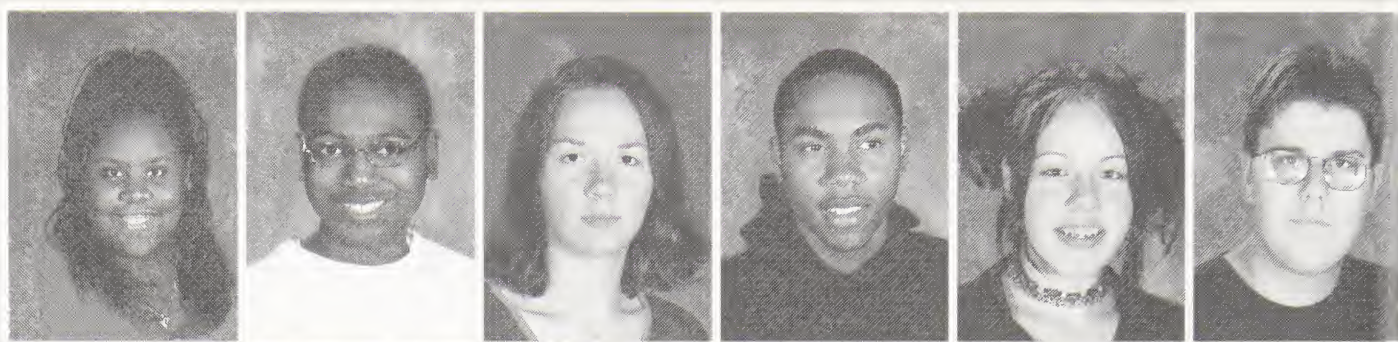

Dan May and Tamika Nunley are typical juniors at Euclid High School. They are active in organizations and clubs and know that these activities will help them be prepared for their futures.

Carley Miller, Ken Mims, Cory Mc Redmond and Brandon Mimes enjoy the times they had together as juniors.

GETTING ESTABLISHED

Sophomores have gotten used to the school's routine

Sophomores had the great advantage of already being familiar with the high school. They have evolved from being completely lost in the building as freshman and have adapted to the rules set by faculty. Sophomores were more conscientious of the opportunities and extracurricular activities available at school and took the time to enjoy them. They're looking forward to their next two years at the high school.

-Jenny Janda

Many sophomores were members of the Marching Band and helped it have a successful season

Many sophomores attended the Homecoming Dance and had a lot of fun associating with the other students who attended.

Learning the principles of good sportsmanship and determination, Erin Rice and Jennifer Crookall work hard on the soccer field.

The Flag Corps consisted of a lot of girls who enjoyed dancing and marching on the football field during the games.

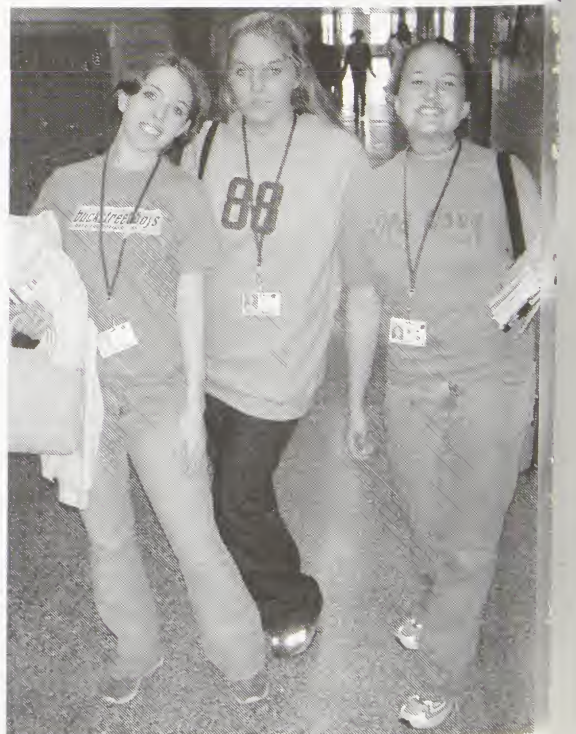

Above: The Voices of New Life Choir had many sophomores who helped make their music great.

Left: Lisa Hanson and Erin Gross worked hard in their classes and adjusted well to being upperclassmen.

Right: Emily Mc Ilvaine, Tara Toth and Erin Rice always get to their classes on time since they know the value of punctuality.

CHANGED FOREVER

The memories section covers events that occurred after February, 2001 since the final deadline for the 2001 Euclidian was at that time. All Spring sports and Spring events were covered in the following year's book.

The Euclid Panther girls softball team were now used to the fast pitching that they began a few years ago.

Big Show gave a lot of students a chance to get involved in a big production.

The baseball team worked hard together to have a successful season.

The tennis team getting ready for a match.

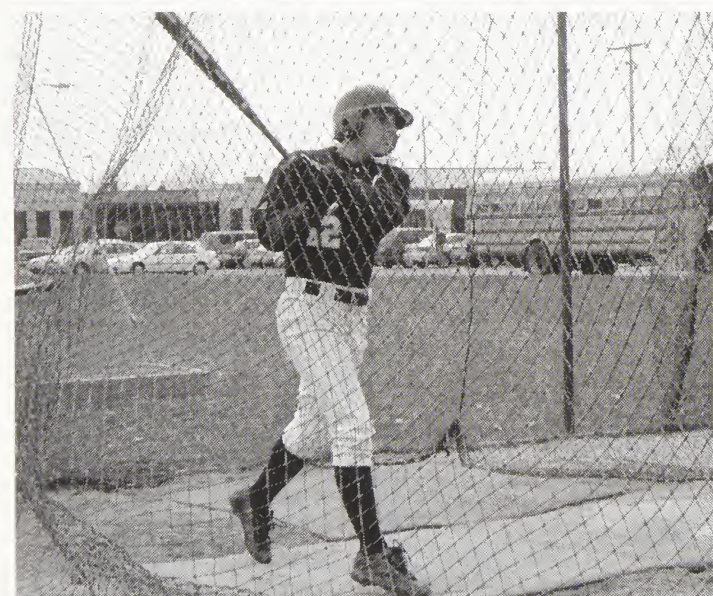

HITTING FOR FIRST

The 2001 version of the Euclid Panther baseball team had a very successful season with a 16-9 record and finishing first in the L.E.L. Behind the exceptional playing of Kent State recruit, Phil Bojc, Mike Ferencz, Bobby Majer and Anthony and Thomas Zrim the team had many very good games. It was a total team effort throughout the season until they were eliminated by Mayfield in the District finals. In the four years the Phil Bojc played for the panthers he set school records for hits(109), doubles(29), home runs(17) and pitching wins(23). He was both a good hitter and a good pitcher. He was an important part of the 2001 baseball team.

-Joe Zuzic

Jon Nosan and Mike Ferencz at first base while Steve Trobenter and Jon Nosan take some batting practice.

J. V. Baseball, Row one: Rob Tracy, Mike Hughes, Ryan Schwarz, Eddie Leppelmeier, James Parish, Mike Bullock. Row two: Coach Adam Fender, Adam Lenin, Matt Salisbury, Brian Eastburn, Tim Carpenter. Row three: Brandon Mimes, Greg Stahre, John Cheney, Jason D'Amico, Ken Ferrar.

Anthony Grida throws the ball in from the outfield while Brian Borciak waits to make a play.

TOO YOUNG TO SUCCEED

The 2001 varsity softball team ended the season with a 5-18 record. After Carla Okorn was injured early in the season, the team consisted on only sophomores and juniors. Erika Stahre, a junior, and Heather Rufo, a sophomore, led the team with their pitching. Stephanie Svoboda, who's never played before last year, led the team in hitting. With such a young team, it was hard to have a winning season. One high point of the season was holding state ranked Elyria to a 1-2 loss. Mr. Ron Zucca and Ms. Rhonda Scharf were the coaches for the team.

-Erika Stahre

Carla Okorn didn't get to play very much because of an injury to her hand.

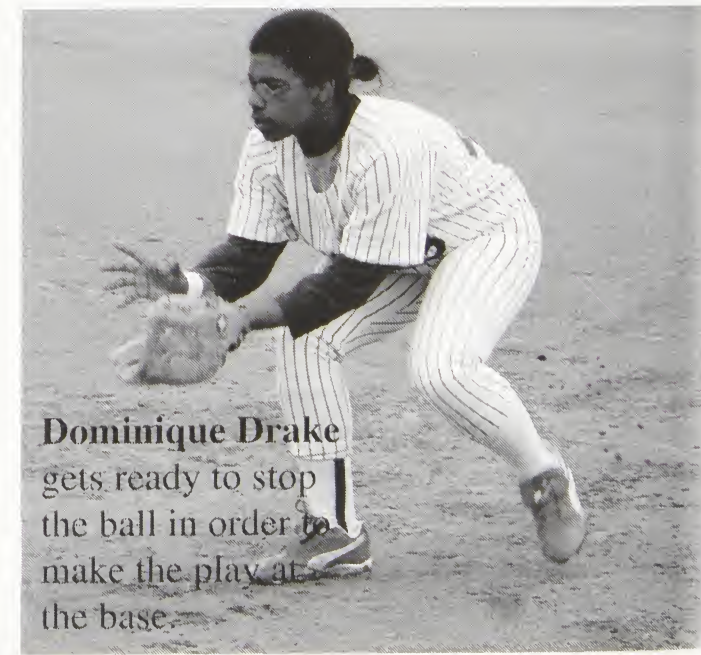

J.V. Softball, Row one: Kim Svoboda, Gina Vidmar, Stephanie Krofcheck, Stephanie Holtz, Christina Hagenbaugh, Amelia Uter. Row two: Coach Craig Haywood, Tara Shimooka, Amanda Mikolajski, Kim Polzner, Jessica Ivancic. Row three: Rachel Lewan, Kamberlyn Russ, Jamie Strell, Lori Leppelmeier.

Erika Stahre worked hard to get the ball over the plate every time.

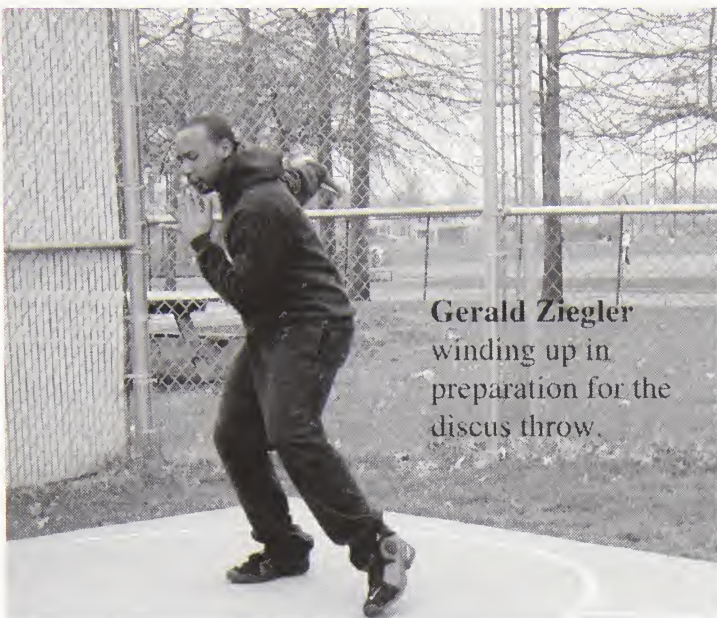

Kari Cunningham fields the ball and gets ready to throw it to first base.

Dominique Drake gets ready to stop the ball in order to make the play at the base.

NOT AS MANY STARS

The 2001 boys outdoor track team finished the season with a 4-1 record. They worked hard and were able to do well in most of their meets. The Spring was relatively warm and most of their meets were run in pleasant weather.

Gerald Ziegler winding up in preparation for the discus throw.

Jamie Paige lands at the end of a good long jump.

SERVING UP SOME WINS

Boys tennis shows improvement

The 2001 version of the Boys tennis team had a very good season winning more matches than in the past few years. First singles, Brad Kushan, led the team in facing the toughest tennis players in northeast Ohio. Second and third singles were Dennis Strell and Milan Tomsic. Doubles players were Rick Kushan, Jared Miller, Ton Vongsfak and Dave Harrold. It was a tough year due to the shortage of players but the team did a good job.

SUCCESSING WITHOUT TRYING

The 2001 Big Show was How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying was directed by Reiko Carey and Paula Langdon. The orchestra, directed by Jennifer Leyer, was comprised of students as well as professionals; together they conquered very difficult music. Al Black and the stage crew produced very high-tech scenery and worked hard on scene changes and lighting. The musical was about J. Pierrepont Finch(Dave King) following instructions from the book How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. He began his climb up the corporate ladder at the world wide Wicket company, headed by J.B. Biggley(Chris Zalewski). Finch surpassed many of Biggley's workers such as Bud Frump(Marques Richardson), Mr. Bratt(Mike Maurer), and Nick Mc Gill who played both parts of Twimble and Wompers. After Finch gets in good with Biggley's secretary, Ms. Jones(Jenni Kapeluch), he's faced with love endeavor Rosemary Pilkington(Kari Longstreth). The show was filled with 8-part harmonies, difficult music, energetic chorus members, and solo secretaries such as Smitty(Alison Baranowski), Miss Krumholtz(Lisa Koller), and very seductive Hedy LaRue(Austine Clark). In the end Finch ends up marrying Rosemary and becoming Chairman of the Board.

Spring Play consisted of several one-act plays

The 2001 Spring Play consisted of two one-act plays and was performed on May 11 and 12 to full audiences of people of all ages. The evening began with The True Story of Cinderella, which portrayed Cinderella (Jenni Kapeluch) as the 'evil stepsister' to Anastasia (Elyse Hilston) and Drizella (Tara Toth), whose mother (Meredith Wise) married the King. Cinderella's father. She went to the Ball and met her Prince (Claudio Gentile) and they lived happily ever after.

The second half of the evening was full of Frumpled Fairy Tales, narrated by Jon Calabrese. The miller's daughter (Emily Kliever) was ordered to spin straw into gold by the King (Jason Weber). The miller (Dan May) could do nothing, but Rumpelstiltskin (Kyle Collins) spun it for her. Her messenger (Tamika Nunley and Alana Purvis) revealed his name to her so she was freed from any repayment she owed him.

Rapunzel began with the Wife (Austine Clark) of the man (Jason Weber) gazing at Dame Goethal's (Alana Purvis) beautiful rampion. Dame Goethal locks Rapunzel (Katie Sivik) in her tower, never to see anyone but her. But then her Prince (Paul Serwatka) finds her and they live happily ever after.

Little Red Riding Hood (Jessica Morris) was on her way to her grandmother's (Brigid Sarns-Gaunt) house, but met the wolf (Dan May) on the way, whom her mother (Meredith Wise) warned her of. Her hero (Claudio Gentile) saved her and all were happy but the wolf.

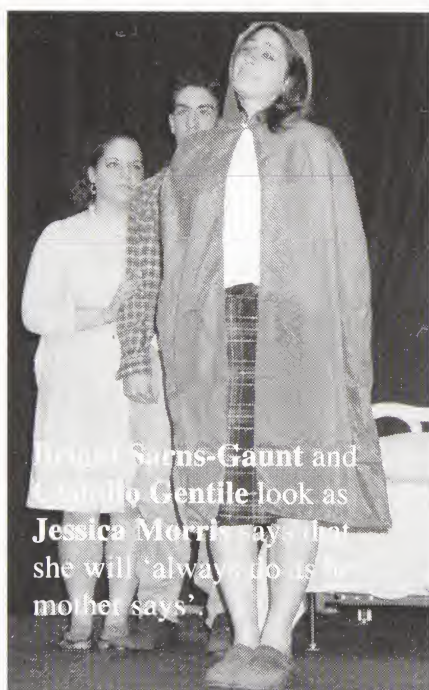

-Jessica Morris

Spring Play, Row one: Kyle Collins. Row two: Paul Serwatka, Austine Clark, Jenni Kapeluch, Jason Weber, Claudio Gentile, Director Mrs. Tina Peterson. Row three: Danielle Mahone, Jessica Morris, Alana Purvis, Jonathan Calabrese, Brigid Sarns-Gaunt, Catherine Sivic, Daniel May Jr. Row four: Kalie Simmerer, Tamika Nunley, Emily Kliever, Tara Colt, Meredith Wise, Elyse Hilston, Erin Gross, Karen Sudama.

Jonathan Calabrese was the narrator for the play.

Brigid Sarns-Gaunt and Claudio Gentile look as Jessica Morris says that she will 'always do as my mother says'.

Elyse Hilston and Tara Toth keep the audience informed of what is going on in the play.

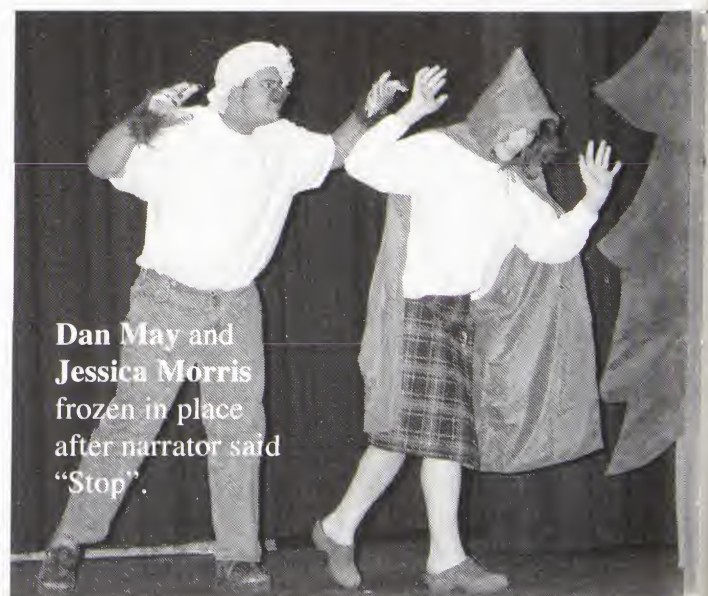

Kyle Collins offers to spin the straw into gold for Emily Kliever.

Claudio Gentile is trying to ask Jenni Kapeluch to dance at the ball.

Dan May shoving Brigid Sarns-Gaunt behind the bed so he can take her place.

Dan May and Jessica Morris frozen in place after narrator said "Stop".

THE FINAL PARTY

Prom was the big dress-up event for the seniors

Prom 2001 was held downtown at the Marriot Hotel on Friday, May 18. The theme of the senior's last dance was Now and Forever and featured blue and silver as its colors. Approximately 400 students attended the event. Many faculty and staff also attended the devine ball including Principal, Ron Seymour with his wife and Superintendent of Schools, Kurt Stanic, along with his wife. After the dance about 150 students attended After Prom at the high school. Activities available to all who came included the casino in the cafeteria, a velcro wall, sumo wrestling and basketball in the east gym and open gym in the west gym. There was also food and refreshments paired with more dancing in the E-room ballroom.

CLOSING

Colophon

Josten's Printing and Publishing Division at State College, Pennsylvania printed the 470 copies of the 2002 Euclidian. The book was printed on Gloss 191 paper stock and included 48 pages of full color. All pages were created using the Adobe PageMaker® 6.0 program running on a Macintosh G3 computer that had 192 megabytes of RAM, and internal 6 and 40 gigabyte hard drives. The pages were backed-up onto a 30 gigabyte firewire drive and onto the Euclid server and on CD ROMs. A 21" color, two page monitor working with a 17" color monitor made page layouts much easier. The G3 was using operating system 9.1. An ibook laptop was also used to take date back and forth between school and home. Most of the pictures in the book were taken with a digital camera. Digital images were imported either directly from a Kodak DC 280 or a Nikon Coolpix 990 or 995 still Video Camera into the G3 via USB interface or a USB CameraMate Compact Flash card reader. The images were processed using Adobe Photoshop®. Appleworks® 6.0 was used for making charts and keeping track of yearbook sales. The color images were scanned by Jostens so they could be altered in size. The index was made using the Josten's program, Last Name First®. The pages were recorded on 100 megabyte Iomega® Zip disks or CD ROMs since the files were so large due to the number of digital images and hard copy was printed on either a Hewlett Packard LaserJet III printer or a Hewlett Packard 970Cse color inkjet printer. The hardcopy and disks were sent to Josten's who stripped in the photos and produced the final copy on a Linotronic printer. The cover was designed by the Josten's Art Department. Pages were submitted to the plant on five deadlines: November 5, November 26, December 12, January 28, and February 25. The pages were submitted as double page spreads. All the color pages had to be in the first deadline since their production entailed so much work. Since the final deadline was in late February, nothing that occurred after that time could be included in the book. The picture patron option was very popular with seventy seven students having their baby pictures included on eleven pages of picture patrons. Continuing this year was the option for parents to purchase more than just the 1/9 page ad if they wished to put multiple pictures or longer messages to their children. The Name Stamp option that was begun several years ago has also increased in popularity. New this year was the availability of a two CD set that contained most of the pictures that were taken throughout the year. They contained most of the pictures that appeared in the yearbook plus many that were taken but did not appear in the book. The files were stored in JPEG format and were accessible using most computers. They were all in full color.

Thank You

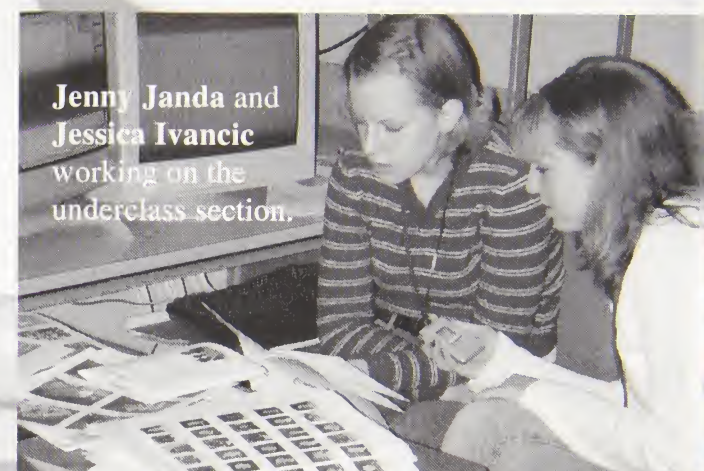

The staff of the 2002*Euclidian* would like to extend thanks to all who helped to make this book possible. First and foremost, thanks have to go to the adviser, Mr. Von Benken for the many long hours of hard work and planning that had to be put in to get the entire operation going and to keep it going. Others to be thanked are: Ohio School Pictures, Inc., for supplying film and processing for the many pictures that appeared in the book and for taking many of the team pictures, senior and underclass pictures. Josten's Yearbook Company for putting it all together in such an artistic manner, Jennifer Beatty for all the time she spent arranging photography dates and supplying needed materials, Marsha Knauss for all the time and work she did trying to get the senior pictures arranged and taken, and all the writers and photographers who contributed their time, and last but not least, the entire student body at Euclid High School without which this book could not exist.

Staff

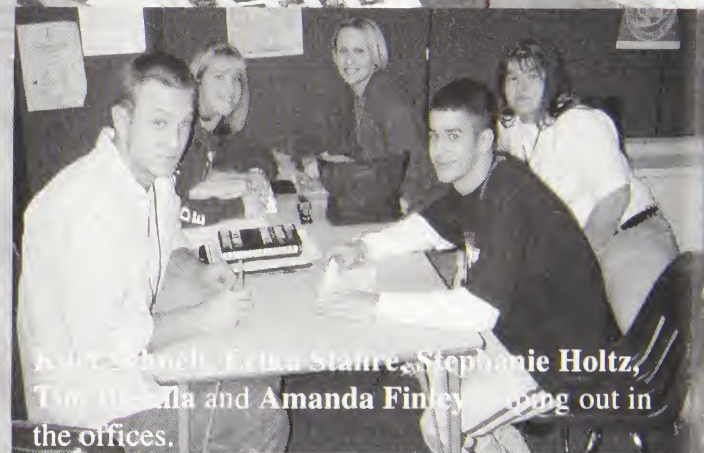

Many people helped in some way with the 2002*Euclidian*. Some wrote stories while others worked on the laying out of the book while others helped in the mailing of letters. Jessica Ivancic, Jennifer Janda and Michael Zudic were a valuable help with all the stories they wrote and all the work they did in helping with the layout production. Some of the other students who did some work were Laura Osterman, Adria Mc Gill, Tonisha Glenn, Cristina Pacheco, Kristen Kulbis, Christopher Hongosh, Kevin Miklaveic, Christina Sugar, and Mr. Von Benken.

Disclaimer

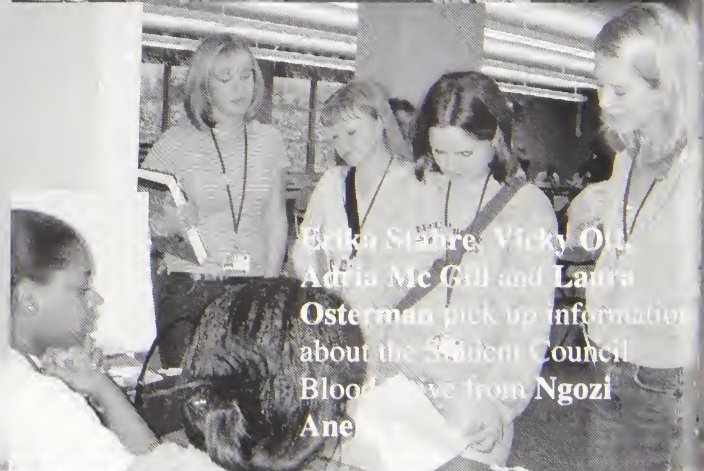

The 2001-2002 school year is history. Many interesting and significant events occurred during that time and the Euclidian tried to cover as many of them as possible. This was difficult due to the limited staff. If we missed something, we are sorry. We sincerely apologize for any errors or omissions that occurred in the book but you have to understand this is only a high school publication and mistakes can happen.
